Hungary

9485	Oremus Eszencia Tokaji 2000	Hungary	375	$484.47 $306.32	$155.00					98
Smelling like fresh peach and apricot, this intensely concentrated dessert wine is thick and supple, picking up hints of orange and butter cookie as it plays out toward the finish. Offers great texture, and the sweetness is balanced by vibrant acidity. You can taste the soil on the finish. Drink now through 2040. 100 cases made. -98 Points (WS)

Barsac

15743	Château Climens 1975	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$604.51 $305.51	$260.00
A truly great wine full of energy and elegance. (Chateau Website)
15746	Château Climens 2003	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$418.27 $251.52	$145.00					96
Loads of honey, maple syrup, dried apricot and spice. Full-bodied, medium-sweet, with a refined, spicy character. Pretty wine. Masses of botrytis. This is refined and long, a racy wine compared with the power and muscle of so many others. Beauty among the beasts. -96 Points (WS)
15748			375	$126.19 $75.59	$44.00
6423	Château Climens 2005	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$252.38 $121.28	$114.00			97	95
15747			1500	$503.76 $302.51	$175.00
Tasted blind at the 10-Year On Tasting in Sauternes. The 2005 Château Climens just soars from the glass with layers of clear honey, marmalade, nectarine and minerals all beautifully carved. The palate is medium-bodied with fresh, vibrant honeyed fruit that builds and builds in the mouth in tandem with a killer line of acidity. Even though it is a convincing, great Climens, you also have the impression that it is only just beginning to show what it is capable of. Bérénice Lurton and her team excelled in this vintage and it comes strongly recommended. -97 Points (WA)
15750	Château Climens 2006	Bordeaux-Barsac	375	$90.57 $53.77	$32.00					96
Beautiful aromas of orange zest are followed by gingerbread, caramel and crème brûlée flavors. This is a beautiful, rich, smoothly dense wine with a core of botrytis, spice and vivid fresh citrus acidity. -96 Points (WE)
15751	Château Climens 2008	Bordeaux-Barsac	375	$100.74 $60.49	$35.00					91
Ripe and luxurious, with creamed ginger, almond and glazed pear notes laced with warm piecrust, apricot and clementine flavors. Long and authoritative on the finish, this is frankly sweet, but with the latent purity for balance. -91 Points (WS)
15752			375	$130.27 $77.65	$45.75
10590	Château Climens 2009	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$254.42 $145.17	$95.00			97	95	18.5
The aromatics display pure honey, minerals, occasionally a faint scent of spearmint and white peach, most with spellbinding precision. On the palate is ample botrytis, ethereal definition, one or two more powerful, quite spicy. -97 Points (WA)
12353			375	$109.91 $68.51	$36.00
11725	Château Climens 2010	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$214.73 $125.03	$78.00				96	18.5
Dense and lush now, offering tangerine, apricot, honey-roasted almond and dacquoise notes, with a long, powerful, honeyed finish that lets toasted coconut and mango cruise through. The lovely dried pineapple and honeysuckle accents flitter through the background. Shows stunning length and depth. This will become dreamy with age. -96 Points (WS)

12824	Château Climens 2011	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$198.45 $122.55	$66.00				97	96
This is a rich, complex wine, full of dry botrytis that is surrounded by ripe honey. Spice, white peach and green plum jelly give complexity and variety. The acidity at the end is beautiful. The wine is already enticing but will need many years to develop fully. -97 Points (WE)
14319			375	$66.11 $38.79	$23.75
14078	Château Climens 2012	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$131.65 $77.60	$47.00					93
This pulls together lush pineapple, ginger, creamed apricot and peach notes, along with singed almond and bitter orange hints. Stays broad and rich overall, but there's good cut underneath and some power that will need a bit of time to mellow. An excellent effort for the vintage. All Sémillon. -93 Points (WS)
6059	Château Coutet 2005	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$96.67 $57.57	$34.00			92	91	94
Surprisingly dry, this has richness rather than sweetness, and intense, powerful botrytis. The honey is intensely perfumed, along with baked apples and spice. Certainly a long-aging wine. -94 Points (WE)

11579	Château Coutet 2010	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$138.76 $86.15	$45.75			95	95	17.5
Offers a bright inner core of honeysuckle, pineapple, star fruit and white peach flavors, coated for now with heather honey, marzipan and mango notes. Fresh and racy through the finish, this is an elegant beauty, showing terrific cut and precision. -95 Points (WS)
13150			375	$60.03 $40.48	$17.00
12834	Château Coutet 2011	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$111.95 $79.75	$28.00					97
White peach, pineapple, white ginger, orange zest and green fig notes are clear and racy, while green almond, brioche, pear and yellow apple details wait in reserve. Offers stunning range and polish, showing terrific energy and cut on the finish. This just makes you feel special when you drink it. An estate that has been rising steadily for a while now. -97 Points (WS)
14320			375	$51.05 $30.35	$18.00
13981	Château Coutet 2012	Bordeaux-Barsac	750	$101.58 $59.03	$37.00					92
Broad and honeyed, with lots of warm piecrust, orange zest, glazed apple, peach and almond cream notes. The finish lingers with orange and date accents, while a hint of citrus oil imparts good spine. Rather flattering today, but has the energy to develop with time. -92 Points (WS)

15491	Château Coutet 2013	Bordeaux-Barsac	375	$38.00 $25.35	$11.00		96		96
Unctuous and ripe, showing mouthfilling flavors of almond cream, ginger, heather honey and apricot, this will need time to unwind fully, but when it does, expect more pineapple, maple and singed orange notes, as this has some depth and power in reserve, as well as more than enough cut for balance. A beauty in the making. - 96 Points (WS)

Sauternes

12848	Château Doisy Vedrines 2011	Bordeaux-Sauternes	750	$61.06 $39.21	$19.00		95		94
Pure, with piercing persimmon, pineapple, white peach and quince flavors. Gorgeous floral notes of honeysuckle and orange blossom form the backdrop, while a heather accent caresses the finish. Overwhelmingly pure in the end, with a finish that sails on and on. -95 Points (WS)
7657	Château Doisy Daene 2006	Bordeaux-Sauternes	750	$70.21 $39.16	$27.00	93	90	17		92
Tasted at the Sauternes 2006 ten-year on horizontal in Bordeaux. The 2006 Doisy-Daene has a mature colour. The nose offers dried honey, pineapple and mango scents, and then a touch of adhesive developing in the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with good tension on the entry. There is great vigor here, a killer line of acidity with hints of barley sugar and dried pineapple towards the finish. This is an excellent Barsac. Tasted April 2016. -93 Points (WA)
8892	Château Doisy Daene 2007	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$35.25 $26.05	$8.00	94	93	18		92
Tasted single blind against its peers. Denis Dubourdieu conjured a wonderful Barsac in 2007. Here there is an initial lightness on the nose that builds with each swirl of the glass. It exhibits fine minerality with apple, dried honey and a touch of wet stone. The palate is very harmonious with good acidity, very focused and succinct with great precision towards the poised finish. This has barely starting motoring, but it possesses an unbridled sense of nonchalance. -94 Points (WA)
9871	Château Doisy Daene 2008	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$29.51 $24.91	$4.00		91			92
Dry, concentrated, a powerful wine with great swathes of dry botrytis cutting through the fruit. A wine that, at this stage, shows power and density. -92 Points (WE)

10443		Bordeaux-Sauternes	750	$84.09 $51.89	$28.00
Quite high-pitched now, with lots of green plum and green almond notes laced with bright honeysuckle and heather. The background shows more lemon shortbread, grapefruit pâte de fruit and persimmon, while the finish offsets the sweetness with a lively quinine note. Distinctive, but will need time to come together. Sémillon and Sauvignon Blanc. -93 Points (WS)
11575	Château Doisy Daene 2010	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$40.66 $24.56	$14.00		94	16.5	95
Elegant nose with sweet white peach, strawberry and vanilla. Medium sweet on the palate with a lovely pure fruit and fine texture. This Barsac is super charming and well balanced. Very spicy on the finish showing wonderful botrytis intensity. -95 Points (JS)
12821	Château Doisy Daene 2011	Bordeaux-Sauternes	750	$81.41 $50.65	$26.75	95	95
This delivers a crackling display of tangerine, white peach, persimmon, green fig and ginger notes, with perfectly embedded acidity letting everything harmonize beautifully through the finish. Shows stunning length and definition. -95 Points (WS)

A fresh, floral style, with pretty honeysuckle and orange blossom notes, followed by white peach, yellow apple and mirabelle plum notes. The long, unadorned finish has lovely elegance. -92 Points (WS)
15492	Château Doisy Daene 2013	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$39.96 $28.46	$10.00		94		17
Plump and forward, this delivers peach, nectarine and candied lemon peel notes gilded with lots of honeysuckle and heather. A flash of bitter almond helps streamline everything through the racy finish. Best from 2017 through 2027. -94 Points (WS)
6798	L'Extravagant Doisy Daene 2004	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$233.05 $184.75	$42.00		95
Really intense and deep botrytis. Fabulous on the palate with gobs of fruit and corresponding acidity. Long and caressing aftertaste. How exceptional. -95 Points (WA)
7674	L'Extravagant Doisy Daene 2006	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$324.64 $194.69	$113.00	95			18
Tasted at the Sauternes 2006 ten-year on horizontal in Bordeaux. The 2006 L'Extravagant Doisy Daene has a rich, opulent and honeyed bouquet that seems to not so much seduce the olfactory senses, but get down to business straight away. The palate is rounded and sensual with pure honey, blood orange, popcorn and touches of nougat towards the tender finish. Beautifully balanced, unctuous and somehow effortless, this is a magnificent Doisy Daene that certainly lives up to its name. Tasted April 2016. -95 Points (WA)
10410	L'Extravagant Doisy Daene 2009	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$406.06 $273.81	$115.00		99
An equal blend of Sémillon and Sauvignon, it delivers a record 220gms residual sugar and yet still exudes astounding minerality and precision, with touches of clear honey, frangipane and cold wet stones. The palate is full-bodied with a mellifluous texture, perfect acidity to slice through that rich botrytized fruit, stunning balance, citrus peel, apricot, Clementine, lemon curd and a hint of ginger. With awesome length, leaving that tingling sensation akin to Szechuan pepper, this wine truly lives up to its name. - 99 Points (WA)
11595	L'Extravagant Doisy Daene 2010	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$385.70 $253.45	$115.00		97		18
Features thoroughly beguiling notes of liquefied persimmon, heather honey, white peach, Bosc pear, tangerine chiffon and lemon shortbread, all seamlessly moving through the stunningly long finish. Shows beautiful clarity, focus and superior cut. This will outlive many of us. -97 Points (WS)

12841		Bordeaux-Sauternes	750	$489.84 $291.82	$172.19
Incredibly rich, with pineapple, persimmon, heather honey, creamed Jonagold apple and quince flavors. The lines are clearly drawn, with seamless acidity lending support and letting the finish both zip and drape at the same time. As pristine as a sweet wine can get. Best from 2016 through 2045. 95 cases made. -99 Points (WS)

10480	Château d'Arche 2009	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$30.99 $18.34	$11.00		95
The 2009 Chateau d'Arche has a perfumed, delicate bouquet that might not offer the intensity some hedonists might seek, but it is very nuanced and complex with scents of yellow flowers, dried honey and candle wax. The palate is medium-bodied with superb acidity combining with the botrytis rich fruit. This is a class act: surfeit with tension and breeding, while the finish offers delicious notes of Manuka honey and spices. This is wonderful. Drink now-2040+. -95 Points (WA)
11526	Château d'Arche 2010	Bordeaux-Sauternes	750	$59.02 $36.02	$20.00			16.5	92

5761			750	$186.44 $142.74	$38.00
The 2001 vintage was a late ripening one for the estate by an Indian summer like 1988 and 1997. The first wave of picking was between September 29 - October 4 and the final passage through the vineyard occurred on October 24. Delivering 132 grams-per-liter residual sugar and 13.88% alcohol, it has a limpid golden hue. The bouquet is very perfumed with beautifully defined Seville orange marmalade, Manuka honey and minerals all vying for attention. The palate is medium-bodied with a viscous entry, noticeable acidity (a total acidity of 5.3 grams) that lends this race, and a citric line that runs from start to finish. There is a resinous/waxy note developing on the ginger-tinged finish that lingers long in the mouth. -93 Points (WA)

This is so creamy, almost milky in feel, with toasted coconut and cashew notes giving way to sweet peach, apricot and glazed pear flavors that glide along, while ginger, green tea, lychee and kumquat flavors extend through the finish. Shows terrific range and definition. Feels like it's just starting to open, and is in no rush. -96 Points (WS)
8026	Château de Fargues 2006	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$100.74 $57.04	$38.00		93	95		94
Tasted at the Sauternes 2006 ten-year on horizontal in Bordeaux. The 2006 de Fargues has a broody nose, piqued at being broached too young (at least for Château de Fargues). The palate is rounded on the entry with orange zest and marmalade notes, very good weight but it feels a little muted towards the finish at the moment. That is typical de Fargues - cellar this for another ten years because all the component parts are here. Tasted April 2016. -93 Points (WA)
9870	Château de Fargues 2008	Bordeaux-Sauternes	375	$75.12 $69.37	$5.00		95	93	16.5
Tasted single blind against its peers. Whereas last year the de Fargues 2008 was immediately forthcoming, a few months later this example demands much more coaxing from the glass. Eventually, it reveals scents of dried pineapple, limestone and a touch of cooking apple with some VA notes lending it a bit of a "kick." The palate is medium-bodied with a mellifluous texture. It is very well-balanced with a tangible sense of tension from start to finish, attractive notes of dried honey and quince interlacing the long structured finish. This constitutes a serious Sauternes for the serious Sauternes-lover. Tasted January 2012. -95 Points (WA)
16973	Château de Fargues 2011	Bordeaux-Sauternes	750	$241.77 $142.87	$86.00					98
Shows fantastic range, featuring creamed Jonagold apple, papaya, toasted coconut, brioche and pineapple notes, laced with macadamia nut and heather honey details. The long, sweetened butter-filled finish shows citrus oil and bitter almond accents. Displays amazing depth and purity, with the elements glistening beautifully as the finish goes on. -98 Points (WS)

Tasted as part of a vertical held at the chateau. The 2009 Guiraud has a complex, precious bouquet with honeysuckle and jasmine notes, hints of dried honey and white peach. It is tightly wound but very precise. The palate is pure and tense in the mouth – great precision here once again with superbly integrated oak and a lovely, seductive, very viscous botrytis-laden finish. In many ways the 2009 represents the wine that every vintage since 1983 would love to be. Drink 2018-2040+ Tasted April 2013. -96 Points (WA)

This gorgeous Sauternes is still really tight, with racy floral and green plum edges along the core flavors of white peach, mirabelle plum, melon and green fig, but there's stunning length, with a rapier of minerality that matches the sweetness step for step on the long, quinine-infused finish. Built for the long haul. Best from 2018 through 2038. -96 Points (WS)

The 2010 Rieussec was missing a little intellect when I tasted it from barrel. Now in bottle it has become a contender for the finest Sauternes of the vintage. It is blessed with a pure and lifted bouquet with ripe peach, nectarine and honey, hints of shaved ginger poke their head above the surface with aeration. It is very subtle. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannins, perfectly judged acidity and convincing harmony. This is a sophisticated Sauternes with superb mineralite and outstanding persistency. The Sigalas-Rabaud has a well defined nose: grapefruit, nectarine, honey and lime, much more primal than some of the other 2009s. The palate is very well balanced with excellent acidity: apricot, honeysuckle, a touch of orange zest and then vibrant white peach bursting across the finish with lime flower and lemongrass on the aftertaste. Wonderful persistency, power and freshness. Without question: the 2009 is the best Sigalas-Rabaud that I have tasted and this nectar comes highly recommended. - 95 Points (WA)

Tasted single blind against its peers. Under blind conditions, the Yquem 2007 shines like a diamond. Nevertheless, it is initially rather taciturn on the nose, eventually opening up beautifully with touches of lemon curd, Mirabelle, and clear honey. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine definition and there seems to be a great deal of energy and vigor dispensed for your pleasure. There is such race and nervosity, and then that finish just purrs with harmony and focus. This Yquem feels just so alive and vivacious, yet there is an effortless quality here that is unmatched by its peers. -98 Points (WA)

Coming in with 139 degrees residual sugar and a pH of 4.75, this is an Yquem that is unequivocally top of the pile in 2008. A light straw color with green tints in the glass. The bouquet is just wonderful, very perfumed with aromas of apricot, acacia honey and white flowers. A degree less clarity than the 2007, but perhaps more nuanced, more honeyed. The palate is a little more viscous than the 2007, lacquers the mouth with honey, apricot and orange zest. Very harmonious, the finish vibrant and edgy, real tension and energy in this Yquem. Very focused on the finish – not the “peacocks” tail of flavors that one finds on truly great vintages. But there is a surreal level of elegance and poise – an understated Yquem that should age effortlessly and returning to the glass it graces you with hints of almond and a dash of spice. -97 Points (WA)

The aromas are so rich and powerful, with great ripe apricots. There are honey, spice and beautiful sweet spiced pears. This is an extraordinary wine in an extraordinary year in Sauternes. -100 Points (WE)

This is a slow-burner, the nose understated at first but unfurling with each passing moment with subtle scents of freshly sliced apricots, Clementine, clear honey and white flowers. There is an underlying minerality that really defines this bouquet. The palate is similar to the nose, revealing hidden facets with almost each swirl of the glass – orange blossom, limestone, white peach and honeysuckle. This is such a precise d'Yquem; it is after you have swallowed the wine that one comprehends just how brilliant it is. -98 Points (WA)

A lovely, creamy, tropical style, with mango, papaya and guava notes lending a caressing feel, while singed almond and warm piecrust accents blossom through the lush finish. Just when you think that's all there is, toasted coconut, fig, orange blossom and persimmon details kick in, lending length and dimension. The finish is ridiculously long. -99 Points (WS)

Lightly toasted marshmallow and macadamia nut aromas lead the way, followed by incredibly juicy mirabelle plum, green fig, and glazed pear and peach flavors. As big as this is, there are still plenty of honeysuckle, quinine and chamomile notes kicking the finish into yet another gear. This has purity and length to burn, with decades more to go. -98 Points (WS)
