Left Bank

Haut Medoc

8055	La Demoiselle de Sociando 2006	Chateau Sociando Mallet	Haut Medoc	750	$40.85 $23.99
Showing a lovely crimson ruby colour, this wine offers enticing aromas of red fruit, cherry, raspberry, with a touch of vanilla from the oak. On the palate, it reveals a round and supple structure and is well-balanced.
12765	La Demoiselle de Sociando 2011	Chateau Sociando Mallet	Haut Medoc	750	$32.81 $19.99				17
The second wine of Sociando-Mallet. A rich and dark hue, with a vibrant purple rim. A great depth of fruit on the nose, rich and impressive. The same fine substance on the palate, with a lovely depth of dark fruits, ripe yet fresh, showing some appropriate acidity. A very bright and stylish character on the palate overall, but there is also the substance to back it up, so that although it has good structure there is rich fruit too. A successful second wine. -17/20 Points (JR)

St. Estephe

8527	La Dame de Montrose 2007	Chateau Montrose	St.Estephe	750	$42.74 $28.98
Soft, pretty and approachable at 8 years of age. Already quite evolved with lovely plum, hint of cocoa and dark spices. Tannins have softened and the fruit is starting to show its secondary flavors of leather and herbs. Drink now. (Jeannie Cho Lee)
9471	La Dame de Montrose 2008	Chateau Montrose	St.Estephe	750	$39.69 $31.49				90	91
Deep ruby/purple color, sweet tannins, seemingly low acidity, and lush, concentrated flavors, it should be a crowd-pleasing head-turner for at least 10-15 years. (WA)
10607	La Dame de Montrose 2009	Chateau Montrose	St.Estephe	750	$76.32 $57.99	91		16	94	93
The wine feels very soft, with sweet spice and light tannins. It is packed with blackberry fruits, although there is a solid, firm structure under the ripe fruit. -93 points (WE)
11713	La Dame de Montrose 2010	Chateau Montrose	St.Estephe	750	$90.57 $54.99	94		17	93	93
One of the best second wines, and possibly the best since the 1990 is the 2010 La Dame de Montrose. This represents 36% of the production and is a blend of two grapes – 64% Cabernet Sauvignon and 36% Merlot. A superb second wine, opulent and substantively textured, it shares more in common with a flamboyant, exuberant year such as 2009 than most 2010s. Dense purple, its oodles of fruit, luxurious mouthfeel and terrific finish make it a sleeper of the vintage. It's a wine to buy in abundant quantities and drink over the next 10-15+ years. -94 Points (WA)
13073	La Dame de Montrose 2011	Chateau Montrose	St.Estephe	750	$71.24 $44.99				90	91
The 2011 Dame de Montrose also benefited from a strict selection as well as top-notch winemaking. Composed of 72% Merlot and 28% Cabernet Sauvignon, it is a spicy, ripe 2011 with lots of fat as well as abundant notes of blueberries and black currants in addition to a sexy, open-knit, mid-weight personality. Drink this seductive effort over the next decade. (WA)
14235	La Dame de Montrose 2012	Chateau Montrose	St.Estephe	750	$67.83 $38.99			16.5	90	92
This second wine of Château Montrose is ripe and structured. In 2012, it formed 29% of total production at Montrose. It opens with severe tannins that transform into ripe blackberry as the wine opens out. Solidly structured and darkly tannic, it needs to age. -92 Points (WE)
10184	Les Pagodes de Cos 2007	Cos d'Estournel	St.Estephe	750	$45.80 $36.99
Offers coffee bean, red fruits and hints of dried herb on the nose. Medium-bodied, with some berry and herb. Light finish. (WS)
9389	Les Pagodes de Cos 2008	Cos d'Estournel	St.Estephe	750	$71.16 $42.99				90	92
The second wine, the 2008 Les Pagodes de Cos, is the finest example of this cuvee yet made. A blend of 53% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 2% Petit Verdot, with a natural alcohol of 13.5%, it offers beautiful freshness along with sweet, pure notes of creme de cassis, earth, and forest floor. Sweet tannin, striking concentration, and a lush style make for an impressive wine that should drink beautifully for 15+ years. (WA)
10538	Les Pagodes de Cos 2009	Cos d'Estournel	St.Estephe	750	$114.50 $69.99	94	91		93	93
The brilliant 2009 Les Pagodes de Cos, is full-bodied, round, generous and exhibits lots of creme de cassis and floral notes intermixed with hints of wood/barrique and spice. Juicy, succulent and remarkably fresh and well-delineated. -94 Points (WA)
12749	Les Pagodes de Cos 2011	Cos d'Estournel	St.Estephe	750	$86.50 $54.99			88	90	91
Smooth and rich while remaining structured, this wine performs the role of second wine very well. The tannins are already rounded and the black currant fruit remains fresh. -91 Points (WE)
14063	Les Pagodes de Cos 2012	Cos d'Estournel	St.Estephe	750	$89.30 $50.00			16.5		92
Named after the Chinese facade of this most extraordinary of wineries, this wine is ripe and smooth in a style that brings out richness and a round character. It's already totally integrated, solid while also very generous. -92 Points (WE)
7201	Marquis de Calon 2005	Chateau Calon Segur	St.Estephe	750	$41.90 $25.99
53% Cabernet Sauvignon, 38% Merlot, 7% Cabernet Franc and 2% Petit Verdot. This is beautifully pure and fragrant on the nose – essence of cassis and mint. The palate is elegant and charming, showing the velvety structure of the vintage.
11593	Marquis de Calon 2010	Chateau Calon Segur	St.Estephe	750	$30.41 $26.49
Château Calon-Ségur's second label is a benchmark for the much-hyped 2010 vintage, showing all the class, complexity and finesse of wines much higher up the classification tree.
14119	Marquis de Calon 2012	Chateau Calon Segur	St.Estephe	750	$28.98 $25.49				90	92
Dominated by ripe, juicy Merlot, this smooth wine has already integrated its tannins. Rich and opulent, it has a velvet texture and dusty tannins, along with plenty of acidity from the black currant fruits. -92 Points (WE)

15762	Chateau Capbern Gasqueton 2008	Chateau Calon Segur	St.Estephe	750	$40.88 $22.99
68% Cabernet Sauvignon, 31% Merlot and 1% Petit Verdot. The class shines through from the first sniff of cedar and vanilla, showing the pedigree of its third growth classified parent, and the blend, largely based on Cabernet Sauvignon, is ripe with a veneer of liquorice spice covering the smooth and stylish cassis fruit quality of a superior claret that's just nicely getting into its stride.
15763	Chateau Capbern Gasqueton 2012	Chateau Calon Segur	St.Estephe	750	$43.10 $24.99				90	92
Soft, open and fruity, this is an attractive wine from an estate owned by Calon-Ségur. There are some tannins, although they are cushioned by the rich black berry fruits and sweet structure. The wine is generous, almost ready to drink. -92 Points (WE)
Paulliac
11085	Carruades de Lafite 2005	Chateau Lafite Rothschild	Paulliac	750	$640.13 $520.98					91
Though this is the second wine for Lafite-Rothschild, it is a major wine in its own right, with its dense, powered fruit and a structure obviously built to last. There is sweet, rich fruit and lively vibrant acidity. -91 Points (WE)
11086	Carruades de Lafite 2006	Chateau Lafite Rothschild	Paulliac	750	$995.00 $520.98		90
The second wine, which has soared in quality over the last decade, is an outstanding effort displaying a character similar to that of Lafite, without the size, depth, and aging potential of that wine. The 2006 Carruades de Lafite offers up aromas of graphite, cedar, black currants, sweet cherries, and smoky herbs. This complex, more evolved, medium-bodied, silky-textured, sexy offering will provide plenty of pleasure over the next 15+ years. -90 Points (WA)
11087	Carruades de Lafite 2007	Chateau Lafite Rothschild	Paulliac	750	$640.13 $520.98
Balanced and very pretty, with refined tannins, medium body and delicious berry, chocolate and light spice. (WS)
14464	Carruades de Lafite 2009	Chateau Lafite Rothschild	Paulliac	750	$543.40 $306.99	93	92		95	93
Currants and blackberries on the nose. Spicy and intense undertones. Full body, with juicy fruit and a soft, very silky texture and a long, long finish. Polished and very pretty. Best Carruades ever. -95 Points (JS)
13083	Carruades de Lafite 2011	Chateau Lafite Rothschild	Paulliac	750	$304.28 $194.99				92	91
A wine with sweet tobacco and coffee character. Full body, with velvety tannins and a medium finish. The Petit Verdot comes out here with spices and hints of fresh herbs. Blend of 55% Cabernet Sauvignon, 39% Merlot 3.5% Cabernet Franc, and 2.5% Petit Verdot. -92 points (JS)
13980	Carruades de Lafite 2012	Chateau Lafite Rothschild	Paulliac	750	$298.15 $169.99				92	93
Lafite's second wine is much closer to a balance of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot than the first wine. It's also a properly rich, satisfying wine that is as much fruit as structure. Packed with blackberry fruits, it has a fresh character that dominates the firmer tannins and touch of bitter chocolate. -93 Points (WE)
9399	Lacoste-Borie 2008	Chateau Grand-Puy-Lacoste	Paulliac	750	$42.23 $24.99
A beautiful ruby red color, has some very intense red berries aromas and spicy notes. It presents the very characteristic cassis nose. In the mouth, we have a great aromatic attack, very fruity with ripe and silky tannins. This is a round, elegant and very "gourmand" wine.
12351	Lacoste-Borie 2010	Chateau Grand-Puy-Lacoste	Paulliac	375	$26.45	$18.99	89
11563				750	$49.35	$29.99
Features a solid black currant, licorice and tobacco core, with well-embedded tarry grip. More approachable than most, showing solid vintage and AOC character. Drink now through 2020. (WS)
6429	Le Petit Mouton de Rothschild 2005	Chateau Mouton Rothschild	Paulliac	750	$478.46 $280.00	91				91
The 2005 Le Petit Mouton has a very expressive, vivacious bouquet with dark cherries, tobacco and even a hint of violet plucked from Margaux. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, a little more structure than the 2010, supremely well detailed, but perhaps just missing the sustain of that aforementioned younger vintage. Still, this an extremely fine Le Petit Mouton drinking now and over the next 15-20 years. Tasted August 2016. -91 Points (WA)
11804	Le Petit Mouton de Rothschild 2010	Chateau Mouton Rothschild	Paulliac	750	$320.57 $189.98	93	91
The 2010 Le Petit Mouton is one of the best ever made. Philippe Dhalluin has conjured such purity on the nose that it's almost like Bordeaux doing an impression of Burgundy, though the latter would not be sporting those subtle cedar and mint aromas. The palate is medium-bodied and beautifully balanced, much more approachable than other 2010 Pauillacs, but with tremendous sensuality and poise, a saline note on the finish lending length and detail. This is highly recommended. Tasted August 2016. -93 Points (WA)
6762	Les Forts de Latour 2004	Chateau Latour	Paulliac	750	$507.83 $480.99		90			91
Latour's second wine is, as so often, on a level with many classed growths. In 2004, it is also a very faithful reflection of the vintage: fresh, lively and vital, with acidity and vibrant blackberry fruits very much up front. -91 Points (WE)
10601	Les Forts de Latour 2009	Chateau Latour	Paulliac	750	$279.87 $179.99	95	93		95	95
The aromas are so floral, with currants and blueberries as well. Succulent. Full and very balanced, with super velvety tannins and a long and lovely finish. Frederic Engerer, president of Latour, uses the word "succulent" to describe it. He's right. I like the word gorgeous as well. Try in 2018, but hard not to drink. -95 Points (JS)
11853/11823	Les Forts de Latour 2010	Chateau Latour	Paulliac	750	$467.12 $282.99	97	95	18	96	94
Bizarre as it may sound, the 2010 Les Forts de Latour is also the finest I have ever tasted from this selection, which comes from specific vineyards, not really so much a second wine as just another wine from estate holdings. A blend of 72.5% Cabernet Sauvignon and 27.5% Merlot that represents 40% of the production, this astonishing wine hit 14.3% natural alcohol. Extremely ripe and rich, it reminds me of the 1982 on steroids (and that wine is still drinking great 30 years after the vintage). Sensational notes of graphite, crushed rocks, black fruits, camphor and damp forest notes are present in this expansive, savory, full-throttle wine, which is better than many vintages of the great Latour itself from the past. (That may be a heretical statement, but it's the truth as I see it.) This wine needs a good 5-6 years of cellaring and should age for three decades at minimum, given the fact that the 1982 is in terrific form and wasn't this concentrated or prodigious. -97 Points (WA)

12946	Les Forts de Latour 2011	Chateau Latour	Pauillac	750	$304.28 $204.99	92	91			93
This wine is characterized by both structure and rich fruitiness. A dark, smoky character brings out the solid tannins that underlie the black currant fruitiness and the balance. Although it doesn't have power, an intensity gives a flavor that lasts in the mouth. -93 Points (WE)
15640	Les Griffons de Pichon Baron 2012	Chateau Pichon Baron	Pauillac	750	$91.57 $54.99					91
The equivalent of an alternative second wine from Château Pichon Baron (with Les Tourelles), Les Griffons is named after the statues of griffins that are in the chateau's courtyard. This is a structured wine, firmly tannic while already showing plenty of black currant fruitiness. Equal measures of Merlot and Cabernet balance the wine and give depth of flavor. -91 Points (WE)
10156	Reserve de la Comtesse de Lalande 2007	Chateau Pichon Comtesse de Lalande	Pauillac	750	$45.80 $33.99
The nose is cassis, currants and slightly chocolate. The palate is a little tannic but time in the glass resolves this easily, allowing the dark fruit, pencil lead and cassis to come out cleanly. A mellow bodied wine with a medium length finish.
10566	Reserve de la Comtesse de Lalande 2009	Chateau Pichon Comtesse de Lalande	Pauillac	750	$91.22 $54.99	91		91
With its characteristic feminine style, this wine exudes wonderful aromatics with elegant fruit. Vibrant dark berries, violet, hints, cedar. The flavours are very fresh and vibrant with an openness that will enable early drinkability. The Reserve is less Cabernet Sauvignon, more Merlot and some Cabernet Franc. -92 Points (Jeannie Cho Lee)
12347	Reserve de la Comtesse de Lalande 2010	Chateau Pichon Comtesse de Lalande	Pauillac	375	$48.34	$28.98	90	16.5	91
11651				750	$60.05
Very polished tannins that caress the palate. Full body. It's fruity, pretty and refined. The mineral and berry character comes through in a subtle way. Second wine of Pichon Lalande. -91 Points (JS)
13020	Reserve de la Comtesse de Lalande 2011	Chateau Pichon Comtesse de Lalande	Pauillac	750	$68.18 $42.99					91
A wine with a seamless tannin structure of ripe tannins. Very fine and polished. Lovely subtle fruit. Well done for second wine of Pichon Lalande. -91 points (JS)
14129	Reserve de la Comtesse de Lalande 2012	Chateau Pichon Comtesse de Lalande	Pauillac	750	$69.05 $38.99			16		90
Intense blackberry flavours and concentration here with dark fruits, cedar and tobacco. There is amazing structure in this 2nd wine of Pichon Lalande than normal. Full bodied, very intense with substance and depth that is surprising in a second wine in a difficult vintage. Fairly long length. 45% of the production is the Reserve. -90 Points (Jeannie Cho Lee)

St. Julien

7550	Clos du Marquis 2006	Chateau Leoville Las Cases	St. Julien	750	$89.05 $54.99	90	92			91
Offers violet and blackberry on the nose, with tar. Full-bodied, with velvety tannins and a fruity, minerally aftertaste. Long and silky. Very serious for the vintage. -92 Points (WS)
8586	Clos du Marquis 2007	Chateau Leoville Las Cases	St. Julien	750	$76.32 $50.00	90				91
Definite tannins here, a wine that shows ripe fruits, richness and a solid core. It is not huge, but does have structure, bitter chocolate, sweetness. It's worth aging this wine. -91 Points (WE)
9503	Clos du Marquis 2008	Chateau Leoville Las Cases	St. Julien	750	$50.90 $44.49	93				93
For many years, Las Cases' second wine has been the equivalent of a classified growth in the Medoc. The 2008 Clos du Marquis may be one of the two or three finest second wines I have tasted from proprietor Jean-Hubert Delon. A blend of 55% Cabernet Sauvignon, 41% Merlot, and the rest Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot that came in at 13.5% natural alcohol, it is a pure, deep, full-bodied effort displaying classic aromas of creme de cassis, licorice, and crushed rocks. On the palate, there is a sensational black fruit character, no hard edges, and a seamless integration of all the component parts. This wine should drink beautifully for 15 or more years. -93 Points (WA)
10604	Clos du Marquis 2009	Chateau Leoville Las Cases	St. Julien	750	$110.15 $74.98	93	92	17	95	94
A dense wine, the wood just showing at this stage through its dark tannins and superb rich fruit. The wine is ripe, with a density of tannins that go right down deep. Big and powerful. -94 Points (WE)
11687	Clos du Marquis 2010	Chateau Leoville Las Cases	St. Julien	750	$109.91 $69.99		93		96	95
This shows beautiful aromas of flowers, raspberries and blackberries that follow through to a full body with ultra silky tannins and a long, long finish. It lasts for minutes. -96 Points (JS)
13085	Clos du Marquis 2011	Chateau Leoville Las Cases	St. Julien	750	$89.27 $58.99		91		92	93
The wine is all about firm structure and dense tannins. It is concentrated while hiding rich, generous fruits. It still needs to balance the structure with the fruit. For the future, it will be a rich wine full of power. -93 Points (WE)
14189	Clos du Marquis 2012	Chateau Leoville Las Cases	St. Julien	750	$92.33 $58.99		91	16.5	92	94
Firm and tannic, this dark berry-flavored wine comes from a specific parcel in the Léoville las Cases vineyard. It's full of tannins and structure, firm and concentrated. At the end, both tannins and tight black currants promise aging. -94 Points (WE)
11806	Le Petit Lion du Marquis de Las Cases 2010	Chateau Leoville Las Cases	St. Julien	750	$109.91 $69.99		91	16.5	91	92
Attractively ripe, this second wine from Château Léoville las Cases is initially fruity. The structure comes through only slowly to reveal itself. The wine is ripe yet shot through with acidity. -92 Points (WE)
11794	Croix de Beaucaillou 2010	Chateau Ducru Beaucaillou	St. Julien	750	$101.77 $67.99	90	91	17	94	93
Croix de Beaucaillou 2010 is impressive. Firm while also rich, it is firmly tannic, superripe and packed with great dark plum and berry fruits. Fruit and structure well balanced together. -93 Points (WE)
13070	Croix de Beaucaillou 2011	Chateau Ducru Beaucaillou	St. Julien	750	$66.14 $44.99				91	92
This is a powerful wine, very dense and muscular. Rich berry fruits push through the firm structure to give a wine that will become opulent as it develops. -92 Points (WE)

9407	Les Arums de Lagrange Bordeaux Blanc 2008	Chateau Lagrange Blanc	St. Julien	750	$39.69 $24.99
From a parcel of vines in the Saint-Julien property of Château Lagrange, this wine is a fine, classically balanced white Bordeaux, with its herbaceous character tamed by a light touch of wood, and the edge of earthiness that seems characteristic of whites from the Médoc. The wine ends with vivid acidity and green fruits.
10542/13094	Les Arums de Lagrange Bordeaux Blanc 2009	Chateau Lagrange Blanc	St. Julien	750	$40.93 $24.99
The color is pale yellow, very limpid, the smell expresses aromas of white flowers, citrus, grapefruit, hazelnut, with some hints of coffee notes due to the ageing in barrel. The attack is lively, very fresh. The palate is pure, fruity. The citrus fruits aromas prevail, combined with slight roasted coffee aromas. A long finish and long-lasting aromas. A well-balanced wine.
11739	Les Arums de Lagrange Bordeaux Blanc 2010	Chateau Lagrange Blanc	St. Julien	750	$40.70 $24.99
This dry, white wine has been produced on the estate since the 1996 vintage. It is an appellation Bordeaux Blanc Sec composed of a blend of Sauvignon Blanc, Sémillon and Muscadelle. The fermentation and ageing take place in oak barrels. The fruit aromas can be very lively in some vintages but the roundness and balance always allow a few years of ageing in the bottle, bringing out lovely notes of honey and toasted almonds.
13011	Les Arums de Lagrange Bordeaux Blanc 2011	Chateau Lagrange Blanc	St. Julien	750	$38.67 $24.99
The style of the Arums de Lagrange is quite unique: it is an explosion of zesty fruit and citrus notes. Lemon and grapefruit mingle with tropical fruit and white peach aromas. On the palate, the volume and acidity bring a lovely tension to the delicate wine.
10520	Les Fiefs de Lagrange 2009	Chateau Lagrange	St. Julien	750	$32.81 $28.98
Smoky, with bay, tobacco and briar notes followed by roasted fig and mulled plum flavors, which all meld through the medium-bodied finish. Approachable now. (WS)
13074	Les Fiefs de Lagrange 2011	Chateau Lagrange	St. Julien	750	$42.74 $29.99
Bright crimson. Attractive sweet red fruit, touch of spice. Fragrant and inviting. Elegant, juicy, fresh and so bright. Fine boned and scented. Dry, fresh finish. (JR)
7885	Sarget de Chateau Gruaud-Larose 1998	Chateau Gruaud-Larose	St. Julien	1500	$100.74 $85.99
Beautiful, brilliant and clear colour. Cherry and orange highlights.
7886	Sarget de Chateau Gruaud-Larose 1999	Chateau Gruaud-Larose	St. Julien	1500	$119.89 $74.99
Dark red colour. The nose reveals notes of undergrowth, mushrooms and cigar box. Frank attack, mellow yet present tannins. Richness and balance in the mouth with a touch of freshness. The wine is balanced and has reached its peak.
7887	Sarget de Chateau Gruaud-Larose 2000	Chateau Gruaud-Larose	St. Julien	1500	$164.97 $104.99			91
This chateau made a classic grand vin and the second wine is outstanding. Very rich and plummy on the nose. Full-bodied, with chewy tannins and plenty of fruit on the finish. Serious concentration here. -91 Points (WS)
9374	Sarget de Chateau Gruaud-Larose 2008	Chateau Gruaud-Larose	St. Julien	750	$38.67 $24.99			89
Ripe and smoky, featuring a bacony edge weaving in and out of notes of espresso, mulled currant, braised fig and bittersweet cocoa. This is still tight on the finish, with a dusty edge holding sway. -89 points (WS)
12957	Sarget de Chateau Gruaud-Larose 2011	Chateau Gruaud-Larose	St. Julien	750	$40.70 $25.99
Slightly high-toned, with a whiff of pomegranate giving way to red currant and bergamot notes, backed by a sandalwood edge on the finish. (WS)
14206	Sarget de Chateau Gruaud-Larose 2012	Chateau Gruaud-Larose	St. Julien	750	$43.28 $27.00					90
Shows a strong bay and tobacco leaf edge, with the plum and red currant fruit held in check for now. The taut finish has pebble and iron notes, revealing a flicker of savory. (WS)

Margaux

8349	Alter Ego de Palmer 2000	Chateau Palmer	Margaux	750	$137.38 $99.99			92
This is super for a second wine. Fantastic aromas of chocolate, berry and coffee. Yet very classy and subtle. Full-bodied, with a reserved, rich and caressing texture. Loads of ripe and wonderful fruit. -92 Points (WS)
11706	Alter Ego de Palmer 2010	Chateau Palmer	Margaux	750	$133.31 $89.99		91	92	92	93
The second wine of Château Palmer is a rich, floral, smooth and perfumed wine. It has layers of dark plums and almost sweet acidity, with tannins that are buried in the voluptuous palate. The finish shows intense black currant acidity. -93 Points (WE)
12918	Alter Ego de Palmer 2011	Chateau Palmer	Margaux	750	$152.66 $89.99			90	92	91
This rich and perfumed wine has a significant proportion of Petit Verdot in the blend, giving great color and ripeness. The wine is soft and fruity with black currant flavors and a light tannic structure. -91 points (WE)
13982	Alter Ego de Palmer 2012	Chateau Palmer	Margaux	750	$121.85 $79.99		93		17	94 92
This is amazing for the second wine with incredible white truffle, stone and currant character. Purity of fruit on the nose. Full-bodied, silky and refined. Fantastic length. Better in 2018 but almost impossible to resist now. Incredible. -94 Points (JS)
10166	Chateau Palmer 19th Century Blend 2007	Chateau Palmer	Margaux	750	$344.00 $249.99
This Historical XIXth Century Wine is a homage to 19th Century practice of blending Hermitage with the wine of Bordeaux. The blending of traditional Bordeaux grape varieties with Syrah from the North of the Côtes du Rhône region brings an exotic touch to evoke the history of the wine and maintained Chateau Palmer's characteristics of smoothness, elegance, balance and refinement. Vintage 2007 is the third vintage that Chateau Palmer has tried this experiment, the fascinating blend of 88% Bordeaux grape varieties (Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon) from Chateau Palmer in Margaux and 12% Syrah from Côtes du Rhône region. On the nose lovely fresh floral notes, followed by lots of red and black fruits, as well as cedar wood and black pepper. The palate is full bodied, with prominent, ripe tannins. Extremely long finish.

Intense citrus and tropical fruit aromas of warm grapefruit, lemon curd, pineapple and a fair amount of cedar. The rich, full bodied palate provides refreshing medium to high acidity balancing the concentrated toasted almond and lemon pie flavours. Long finish with a pleasant touch phenolic grip from the new oak. -93 points (WA)

Ripe but focused, with heather, salted butter, macadamia nut, white peach and Jonagold apple notes. This has weight and definition, kept honest by a hint of tarragon on the finish. Very long and pure, showing a youthful vibrancy and a precision that should carry this in the cellar longer than you might expect. Drink now through 2020. 1,250 cases made. -93 Points (WS)
12885/12940	Pavillon Blanc du Chateau Margaux 2011	Chateau Margaux	Margaux	750	$233.05 $172.99			95		98
This is very lively and intense, with wonderful energy and brightness. Full body with wonderful finesse. It goes on for minutes. What an amazing finish. It shows dried mangoes, lemons, apples and pineapples, but so lively and fresh. Fresh honey. Such energy. As always 100 percent sauvignon blanc, and amazing. Best ever. Get it. -98 Points (JS)

A continuing success story for the white from Château Margaux, this crisply herbaceous wine delivers impressive depths of flavor and texture. Lemon and apple dominate the fruitiness, with a touch of honey to contrast with the crisp acidity. -93 Points (WE)
11876/11862	Pavillon Rouge du Chateau Margaux 2010	Chateau Margaux	Margaux	750	$406.06 $289.99	94	94		96	94
This the greatest Pavillon Rouge ever made. Aromas of flowers, smoke, currants and raspberries follow through to a full body, with super silky tannins and a long, long finish. This is balanced and refined with wonderful depth. Hard to believe it's a second wine. Better after 2018. -96 Points (JS)
12884	Pavillon Rouge du Chateau Margaux 2011	Chateau Margaux	Margaux	750	$222.87 $169.99			90		93
Dark, dense and packed with wood flavors, the wine is hard at this stage. But it is also laden with fruits to give a dramatically powerful potential for this second wine. Blackberry fruits go with the smoky flavors and promise a fresh view as the wine ages. -93 Points (WE)
13988	Pavillon Rouge du Chateau Margaux 2012	Chateau Margaux	Margaux	750	$236.58 $169.99	90	90	17.5	91	91
This is a crisp, red-fruited wine with acidity and fresh tannins. It's lost the austerity it showed at barrel tasting and has become surprisingly fresh, only showing its depths and concentration as it unfolds. The texture is smooth, soft with its firmer tannins very much in the background. It's likely to develop quickly. -91 Points (WE)
10519	Sirene de Giscours Margaux 2009	Chateau Giscours	Margaux	750	$35.62 $28.00			89
This wine has an old-school twinge, with bay leaf and alder notes leading the way for cassis bush, blackberry and tobacco flavors. There's lightly edgy grip, but this doesn't really have the stuffing to go long-term. (WS)

Pessac-Léognan

A plush, modern style version, with a rounded feel to the spice-tinged structure that supports the fleshy blackberry and raspberry confiture flavors. Fruitcake and dark anise chime in the background and echo through the suave, well-coated finish. Best from 2014 through 2025. 5,800 cases made. -92 Points (WS)

Deliciously tarry from the start, with a cauldron of steeped blackberry, boysenberry and pastis-soaked plum fruit melded to well-roasted apple wood and graphite notes. Intense and grippy, showing purity and polish. Should benefit from mid-term cellaring. Best from 2016 through 2030. 4,500 cases made. -93 Points (WS)

Named after the chapel that brings out the monastic feel of Château la Mission Haut-Brion, this second wine is firm and tannic, with a dusty texture and a dry, firm aftertaste. It's nowhere near ready to drink although with its weight and the potential of the underlying black currant fruits, it's likely to be richly dense in the years to come. -92 Points (WE)

Barsac/Sauternes

15742	Cypres de Climens 2011	Chateau Climens	Barsac	750	$64.11 $44.99

Beautiful nose of violets and dried jasmine flowers. Palate is elegant and light with vibrant mixed red berry fruit. Lively, lifted and very energetic. Palate offers fresh, crunchy red berries with good finish. Well done for this vintage. (Jeannie Cho Lee)

St. Emilion

8581	Chapelle d'Ausone 2007	Chateau Ausone	St.Emilion	750	$221.85 $159.99					90
50% Cabernet Franc in the blend. Really polished wine. Close to Ausone in style and stature. Has the depth and intensity many lack in 2007. Full and fresh with a fine tannic line. (DEC)
9444	Chapelle d'Ausone 2008	Chateau Ausone	St.Emilion	750	$233.56 $159.99					92
Rich and dense, a second wine that is right at the level of a grand cru classé. The fruit is polished by wood, with additional chocolate and spice character. The wine has power, extraction and tannins that envelop the juicy fruit. -92 Points (WE)
10654	Chapelle d'Ausone 2009	Chateau Ausone	St.Emilion	750	$356.10 $249.99					96 93

This complex wine has rich tannins and layers of new wood atop dark black berries. At the same time, it is rounding out well, offering spice, sweet acidity and a terse freshness that is infectious. It's a very fruity wine for the medium term. -93 points (WE)
14192	Chapelle d'Ausone 2012	Chateau Ausone	St.Emilion	750	$299.49 $189.98			17+	95	93
The second wine of Château Ausone is impressive in its own right. It reflects the fruitier, Merlot side of the vineyard, with ripe black fruits coming through the tannins. The wood aging does show in a vanilla character that will disappear as it matures. It's ripe, full of juicy fruit and ready to age over the medium term. -93 Points (WE)
10677	Le Carillon de L'Angelus Grand Cru 2009	Chateau Angelus	St.Emilion	750	$133.11 $89.99				16	90
This blend of equal parts Merlot and Cabernet Franc hit 14% natural alcohol. It is a soft, fruity, front end-loaded wine with plenty of berry fruit, underbrush and herbs as well as a hint of coffee and some loamy soil notes. (WA)

7661	Le Petit Cheval 2006	Chateau Cheval Blanc	St.Emilion	750	$253.41 $159.99
One of the stronger second wines I have tasted from manager/winemaker, Pierre Lurton, the 2006 Le Petit Cheval exhibits a dark ruby hue along with sweet red and black fruit notes intermixed with underbrush, forest floor, and licorice characteristics. This is a seductive second wine that cascades over the palate with no hard edges. (WA)
9453	Le Petit Cheval 2008	Chateau Cheval Blanc	St.Emilion	750	$164.44 $99.99					90 90
Ripe, smoky, perfumed Cabernet Franc fruit with sweet, dusty tannins creates spice and a sweet chocolate character, followed by a finish that brings out acidity as well. (WE)
10652	Le Petit Cheval 2009	Chateau Cheval Blanc	St.Emilion	750	$300.21 $199.99	93	92			94
This has density and heft, but stays pure and almost accessible now, thanks to its lovely, rounded feel, which allows the plum, fig, steeped black currant, melted licorice snap and loam notes to hang gracefully through the finish, with well-buried acidity. -92 Points (WS)
11891	Le Petit Cheval 2010	Chateau Cheval Blanc	St.Emilion	750	$456.95 $289.99	93	93	17	95	93
The best second wine I have ever tasted from Cheval Blanc is the 2010 Le Petit Cheval. This wine is essentially three-fourths Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc. Rivaling the brilliant 2009, thirty percent of the production from this monstrously sized estate made it into this wine, which offers up plenty of white chocolate, cassis and mulberry as well as a hint of roasted herbs. With fleshy, round flavors, full-bodied texture and an amazing finish, this is no second wine, and considerably better than some of the Cheval Blancs of the 1960s and 1970s! Drink it over the next 15 or so years. -93 Points (WA)
13009	Le Petit Cheval 2011	Chateau Cheval Blanc	St.Emilion	750	$304.28 $199.99		90			90 91
The second wine of Château Cheval Blanc is packed with wood flavors and spice. A toasty wine, it also has solid tannins plus fragrant fruitiness. Already the fruit is coming through strongly and it is for medium-term aging. -91 points (WE)
8180	Les Aromes de Pavie 2005	Chateau Pavie	St.Emilion	750	$94.72 $64.99		90
Made from the estate's younger vines (under 10-years of age), the 2005 Les Aromes de Pavie is a blend of 70% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc, and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon aged in primarily old oak for two years. Deep ruby/purple-hued, soft, fruity, medium to full-bodied, and spicy with hints of high class cigar tobacco mixed with cassis and sweet cherries, it possesses some of its bigger sibling's personality. -90 points (WA)
10015	Les Aromes de Pavie 2006	Chateau Pavie	St.Emilion	750	$45.80 $38.99
70% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc, 10% Cabernet Sauvignon. Principally from young vines that are less than ten years old, the final blend also contains numerous barrels that were remaining following the severe selection that is practiced for the first wine. The same care and attention goes into the production of this wine as to Pavie itself.
14034	Virginie de Valandraud 2012	Chateau Valandraud	St.Emilion	750	$70.90 $42.99				17	92
The second wine of Château Valandraud is richly powered by spice from new wood and delicate acidity. It's smooth—showing opulent tannins—and attractive freshness. -92 Points (WE)
