Molson Coors Canada Presents Final Proceeds From Hurricane Igor Relief Initiative

St. John's, NL, February 28, 2011 – Molson Coors Canada presented the final proceeds from its Hurricane Igor relief initiative to the Red Cross, Newfoundland and Labrador region, today at a ceremony held at NLC's Kelsey Drive Liquor Store in St. John's. Launched by Molson Coors Canada and supported in partnership with the Newfoundland Labrador Liquor Corporation (NLC), $0.50 from the sale of each Molson Canadian and Coors Light 6-pack during the month of November 2010 went into a fund to support relief efforts in this province as delivered by the Canadian Red Cross. The final proceeds from this initiative totaled $55,993.50.

"Molson Coors has always taken pride in being involved in our community and it was an easy decision to get involved with the Igor relief effort," explained Craig White, Retail Key Account Manager, Molson Coors Canada. "We'd like to thank our customers, the NLC and especially the Red Cross for always being there for our province and people in times of need."

NLC Liquor Stores, Liquor Express locations and Brewer's Agents stores participated in the program.

"It's important for us to play a part in rebuilding the communities that support our business," Steve Winter, NLC's President and CEO added. "The swift reaction of financial contributions from across the province has been very impressive. We were proud to get involved and assist the Red Cross in helping get our people back on track."

To help kick start the initiative, Brian Harriman, Molson Coors Canada, presented a $10,000 cheque to the Canadian Red Cross in October 2010 at the Howley Estates Liquor Store in St. John's. The additional funds announced today came directly from sales of Molson Canadian and Coors Light 6-packs in November.

"Knowing this cheque was coming allowed us to factor the amount in the financial assistance the Red Cross provided to more than 200 individuals and families who faced significant financial hardship as a result of hurricane Igor," said Rhonda Kenney, provincial director of the Canadian Red Cross. "So it's on their behalf that we thank Molson Coors and Newfoundland Labrador Liquor Corporation patrons and staff for their generosity."
