7529	Château Beauregard 2006	Pomerol	750	2006	12	$68.69	$25.00	$39.94					Intense colour. Deep, very mature nose, superb fruit. Medium bodied palate, very delicate and silky. A very fine Pomerol, elegant and feminine. -94 Points (Gilbert & Gaillard)
15654	Château Beauregard 2010	Pomerol	750	2010	12	$94.83	$35.00	$54.58	91	90			On of my favorite Beauregards in many a year, this vintage is very sexy and lush, with caramelized mocha, chocolate, black cherry fruit, some loamy soil notes, sweet tannins and a voluptuous, fleshy, succulent mouthfeel. It is nearly impossible to resist at present and should continue to drink well for at least another 12-15 years.
19193	Château Beauregard 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	12	$69.00	$15.00	$51.75					Well made, soft, plummy Pomerol with ripe plums and mixed berry fruit flavours. Balanced with good intensity and concentration for this vintage. Fairly long finish. Very well made. -90 Points (Jeannie Cho Lee)
16547	Château Beauregard 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$74.98	$25.00	$46.23	88				The 2014 Beauregard has a conservative bouquet with light cigar box scents merging with red berry fruit and just a touch of cola. The palate is medium-bodied with fine, supple tannin. I appreciate the purity here, a "tart" Pomerol happy in its own skin with a savory note towards the finish. Enjoy this competent, if not extraordinary 2014 over the next ten years. -88 Points (WA)
16507	Château Bellegrave 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$52.99	$15.00	$35.74	90				The 2014 Bellegrave has a conservative, you could almost say predictable bouquet, one that is well defined with stony, black fruit, hints of smoke and truffle. The palate is well balanced with fine tannin, lovely delineation and focus, an extremely nuanced Pomerol that expresses that enclave of gravel soil in the western flank of the appellation. There is very astute winemaking here, a beautifully crafted Pomerol from the western flank of the appellation that will age with style. -90 Points (WA)
16623	Château Certan de May 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$159.99	$40.00	$113.99		92	95	94	So much blackberry, stone, dried-mushroom and wet-earth character on then nose. Yet it's a wine that remains clear and focused. Medium-to full-bodied, linear and tannic. A serious wine. Best in years from here. Better in 2022. -95 Points (JS)
7718	Château Clinet 2006	Pomerol	750	2006	12	$106.85	$25.00	$78.10	91	90		91	Red berry fruit, red cherries, a touch of fig jam coming through with aeration. It is not as complex as the top tier vintages from Ronan Laborde and his team, yet there is charm in spades. The palate is medium-bodied with chewy tannin, grippy in the mouth and with an almost crunchy, cracked black pepper finish that is a little more reserved than I was expecting. I would personally open bottles of the 2006 over the next 10-15 years. Tasted March 2016. -91 Points (WA)
15034	Château Clinet 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	12	$109.85	$30.00	$75.35	91	91			This is sneakily deep and long, with bramble, licorice root and warm fruitcake notes enhancing a core of sappy kirsch, blackberry coulis and plum compote flavors. Everything pulls together nicely on the finish, though this needs time to stretch out fully. This has really beefed up since the barrel tasting. Best from 2018 through 2027. 3,750 cases made. -91 Points (WS)
16569	Château Clinet 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$129.99	$40.00	$83.99	91	92	94		A tight and subtle wine with very pretty ripe-fruit character and chocolate. Medium to full body. Needs time to open. Better in 2020. -94 Points (JS)
15239	Château Clos L'Eglise 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	6	$115.99	$30.00	$81.49	90	89			The 2013 Clos l'Eglise has developed a very attractive bouquet with blackberry, briary and incense aromas that are well defined, very pretty. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp acidity, grainy on the entry with freshness and vigor. I appreciate the density here - not a common feature in 2013 - with a touch of salinity towards the finish. It will give a decade's worth of drinking pleasure. -90 Points (WA)
16618	Château Clos L'Eglise 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	6	$132.99	$40.00	$86.99	92	92			The 2014 Clos l'Eglise has a tightly wound bouquet, quite backward as you might expect, with broody black cherry, black truffle and touches of orange peel. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, crisp and tensile with a gentle grip in the mouth, touches of allspice and clove emerging towards the nicely structured and linear finish that lingers in the mouth. This is a well-crafted Clos l'Eglise that I suspect will have much more to give after three or four years in bottle. March 2017 -92 Points (WA)
13030	Château de Sales 2011	Pomerol	750	2011	12	$40.70	$15.00	$23.45
16367	L'Hospitalet de Gazin 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$54.99	$15.00	$37.74					L'Hospitalet de Gazin is the second wine of Château Gazin introduced in 1986. It is produced in very similar conditions to those of the grand vin by the same team and the same concern for quality. The main difference is the positioning of the vines used: for the second wine vineyards are located predominantly below the château, on soils of gravel and sand and are the youngest vines. L'Hospitalet de Gazin approachable, attractive, fresh and fruity. It can be drunk even in the year after bottling, but can also be kept for many years. (www.avis-vin.lefigaro.fr)
9298	Château Gazin 2008	Pomerol	750	2008	12	$101.96	$35.00	$61.71	94	90			Gazin's 2008, a structured, masculine style of Pomerol, reveals a dense plum/purple color in addition to a gorgeous perfume of licorice, mocha, black currants, plums and Asian spices. Firm, dense and full-bodied with stunning concentration, it represents a hypothetical blend of its two near-by neighbors, Lafleur and Petrus. Congratulations to Gazin on another fabulous effort that still seems to be under most consumers' radar. The 2008 should drink well for 20-25 years. -94 Points (WA)
12754	Château Gazin 2011	Pomerol	750	2011	12	$119.06	$40.00	$73.06	93+				A powerful, virile 2011, Gazin reveals a dense ruby/purple color, a big, meaty, earthy richness, lots of coffee, black cherry liqueur and spice notes, and a full-bodied mouthfeel. It will benefit from another 3-4 years of cellaring and should keep for 15+ years. -93+ Points (WA)
14957	Château Gazin 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	12	$112.00	$35.00	$71.75	89+				A generous, delicious Gazin with lifted dark berry fruits and velvety tannins. Palate is delicate and fresh with wonderful vibrancy and energy. This wine should age/evolve well over the next decade or two. -91 Points (Jeannie Cho Lee)
16376	Château Gazin 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$114.99	$35.00	$74.74	94	90	95		The 2014 Gazin was stubborn and broody when tasted in bottle, but give it a few swirls and there comes forth gravel and black truffle scents alongside sultry black fruit. These aromatics are so engaging and involving, drawing you in towards its charms. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, crisp and taut with great precision and sappiness towards the focused, almost symmetrical, black truffle-laced finish. This continues Gazin's fine run of form, a great Pomerol from an estate predisposed these days to create sophisticated, classic wines. -94 Points (WA)
18062	Château La Conseillante 2008	Pomerol	1500	2008	3	$700.00	$225.00	$441.25	95				The beautiful 2008 exhibits a dark plum/ruby/purple color as well as jammy red and black fruit, crushed rock and floral notes. If this were a Burgundy, one might think of it as a grand cru Musigny. With excellent texture, medium to full body and stunning purity as well as nobility, this fascinating Pomerol should drink well for 15-20 years. -95 Points (WA)

10634	Château La Conseillante 2009	Pomerol	750	2009	12	$401.99	$120.00	$263.99	96	96	97	93	The competition between the 2009, 2005 and 2000 La Conseillante will be interesting to follow over the next twenty years. There was more of a selection process at this estate in 2009 than there was in 2000, resulting in a beautiful Pomerol offering notes of mulberries, sweet cherries, spring flowers, raspberries and truffles. The color is a healthy deep plum/ruby/purple and the wine is medium to full-bodied with silky tannins, a broad, layered mouthfeel and wonderful freshness as well as length. This gorgeous, complex, Burgundian-styled Pomerol will be drinkable in 4-6 years and should keep for 30-40. (The 1970 is still alive and that was not nearly as well made as the 2009.) -96 Points (WA)
11802	Château la Conseillante 2010	Pomerol	750	2010	12	$436.59	$150.00	$264.09	96	96	98		A brilliant effort from this property, known for the sheer elegance and finesse of its wines, the 2010 La Conseillante offers back-to-back monumental efforts, particularly given the remarkable 2009. This estate has been on a hot streak of late. The 2010 is a slightly bigger, richer wine, but without losing its floral, elegant mulberry, black raspberry and sweet kirsch notes. Combine those with some licorice, subtle new oak and a hint of forest floor, and the result is a medium to full-bodied, rich, complex wine that has striking aromatics and perfect balance in the mouth. Forget it for 3-5 years and drink it over the following 30. -96 Points (WA)
18057	Château la Conseillante 2010	Pomerol	1500	2010	6	$850.00	$100.00	$735.00
18060	Château la Conseillante 2010	Pomerol	3000	2010	3	$2,094.99	$545.00	$1,468.24
12949	Château La Conseillante 2011	Pomerol	750	2011	12	$192.34	$60.00	$123.34	92	92			The quintessential elegant style of Pomerol, the 2011 La Conseillante offers copious aromas of raspberries, mulberries and spring flowers. Medium-bodied with pure fruit, seamlessly integrated tannin, acidity and wood, and a soft, velvety textured finish, this classic effort is ethereal in its elegance and precision. Drink it over the next 10-15 years. -92 Points (WA)
16549	Château la Conseillante 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$182.99	$50.00	$125.49	93	93	96		Classical elegance in an uncompromising form, whereby the richness is beautifully interwoven with the dry tannins. The finish very long, savory and complex. A lot of delicate spicy and olive notes make this really complex. -96 Points (JS)
15380	Château La Croix St. Georges 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	12	$79.99	$20.00	$56.99					Very good Pomerol with plummy, ripe fruit with very good length. Well made fruity wine in this difficult vintage. -90 Points (Jeannie Cho Lee)
16388	Château La Croix St. Georges 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$74.98	$15.00	$57.73					With a nose of vanilla and a fresh bowl of cherries, this wine is soft and supple with a prominent kiss of oak in the finish. The wine is produced from 92% Merlot and 8% Cabernet Franc and reached 13.5% alcohol. -89 Points (The Wine Callar Insider)
16620	Château La Fleur Petrus 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	6	$219.99	$70.00	$139.49	94	94			The 2014 La Fleur Petrus is impressive out of barrel and it continues to evince quality now in bottle. It has a lovely, engaging bouquet with vivacious redcurrant and cranberry fruit, superb mineralité and energy, real focus and a sense of drive in situ. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, a sense of symmetry and poise from start to finish. It has perhaps turned into a slightly more elegant and feminine wine than I anticipated, less bullish than the Hosanna. But there is real complexity on the finish with black pepper and clove lingering on the aftertaste. This is superb. -94 Points (WA)
16364	Château La Grave a Pomerol 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$58.99	$15.00	$41.74	90	92			Lovely, with a caressing feel that lets alluring notes of raspberry, boysenberry and red currant preserves glide through, picking up red licorice, black tea and singed allspice accents along the way. The long, refined finish has a beautiful iron echo. Best from 2020 through 2035. 2,208 cases made. -92 Points (WS)
15047	Château La Pointe 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	12	$55.00	$15.00	$37.75		89			A fresh, supple style, with melted red licorice and plum sauce flavors carried by singed balsam and apple wood notes. Just a touch firm through the finish, but should meld well enough in the near-term. Best from 2017 through 2021. -89 Points (WS)
16571	Château La Pointe 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$63.99	$20.00	$40.99	90+	88			The 2014 La Pointe has a composed, truffle and smoke tinged bouquet that opens nicely in the glass, touches of incense emerging with time. The palate is medium-bodied with supple, fine tannin and well-judged acidity. This is refined and poised, displaying commendable energy and harmony towards the finish that begs you back for another sip. This is a well-made La Pointe from Eric Monnoret, a Pomerol that seems to be improving now that it is in bottle. One to watch... Tasted twice with consistent notes. -90+ Points (WA)
16365	Château Lagrange 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$48.99	$15.00	$31.74					Château Lagrange is a Pomerol property that produces rich, powerful and full-bodied Pomerols that are now amongst the finest wines being produced in the appellation. It is owned by the firm of Jean-Pierre-Moueix, which also owns Château Pétrus, Château Trotanoy and Château Magdelaine. The 8.5 hectares of vineyards are located on the famous Pomerol plateau next to the church, where the soil is gravel-rich - the vineyards have recently been replanted and now comprises of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc vines. The grapes are hand-harvested and then fermented in temperature-controlled concrete tanks. The wine is then aged in small oak barrels (30% new) for 18 months before being lightly fined and then bottled. (www.bbr.com)
16368	Château Latour à Pomerol 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$124.99	$35.00	$84.74	93	93			The 2014 Latour a Pomerol has a similar bouquet to the 2014 La Grave-à-Pomerol at first, yet there is immediately more intensity here, still tertiary with scents of warm gravel on a summer's day and black truffle developing with time in the glass. The palate is well structured, a solid backbone here that supports the layers of spicy blackberry and wild strawberry fruit. This is a Pomerol whereby the more I get to know it, the more I fall for its charms and appreciate that tension and energy on the finish. There is a real flourish to this Pomerol that surpasses its showing from barrel. -93 Points (WA)
15662	Château Le Bon Pasteur 2010	Pomerol	750	2010	12	$183.06	$60.00	$114.06	95	91	95		A fleshy, full-throttle wine with lots of mocha, kirsch, mulberry, and plum, their 2010 displays a smorgasbord of aromas, a full-bodied mouthfeel, terrific purity, density and even a hint of lead pencil shavings and subtle toasty oak. If you want to understand the genius of the Rollands, there is no better example than looking at their own wine from this property in Pomerol. The tannins are present, but not that significant, thus I tend to think the wine will come into its own in 4-5 years and last for 20 or more. -95 Points (WA)
15669	Château Le Bon Pasteur 2011	Pomerol	750	2011	12	$133.55	$50.00	$76.05	90	90			A fresh, pure, fruit-driven style, with pretty raspberry and cherry flavors, lined with rose petal and cherry blossom notes. The supple, rounded finish has a pleasant incense frame. -90 Points (WA)
15185	Château Le Bon Pasteur 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	12	$98.00	$25.00	$69.25		89			A fun wine, with juicy raspberry and plum pâte de fruit flavors that course along, flecked with anise and backed by a plush, fruitcake-edged finish. Hedonistic, rounded in feel and ready to go. Drink now through 2019. 600 cases made. -89 Points (WS)
16647	Chateau Le Bon Pasteur 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$124.99	$35.00	$84.74	91	90			This has a succulent edge, with friendly raspberry and boysenberry confiture notes underscored by warm fruitcake flavors and a hint of ganache. Drink now through 2026. 1,250 cases made. -90 Points (WA)
7549	Château La Fleur de Gay 2006	Pomerol	750	2006	12	$152.60	$50.00	$95.10	92				Certainly the 2006 is an outstanding wine. This 100% Merlot boasts a deep, saturated ruby/purple color followed by sweet raspberry and blueberry notes interwoven with hints of truffles and charcoal. The wine possesses a full-bodied, luscious texture, admirable purity, and impressive length. -92 Points (WA)

10453	Château La Fleur de Gay 2009	Pomerol	750	2009	12	$184.27	$60.00	$115.27	95	92	95		As always, there is an elegance to the La Fleur de Gay, but the tell-tale flowery, raspberry jam, and blueberry pie notes jump from the glass along with hints of graphite and truffle. Deep, rich, full-bodied and textured, with sweet tannin and a stunning elegance and purity, this beauty that can be approached now or cellared for 20-25 years. From a property now run completely by Chantal Lebreton since her brother, Dr. Alain Raynaud, sold all his interests, this wine, which boasts Michel Rolland as the consultant, comes from the very choice, 7.5-acre parcels of the larger Le Croix de Gay vineyard. The average age of the vines is 35 years and the blend is relatively simple – 100% Merlot, aged mostly in new oak. The alcohol here is just over 14.5%. -95 Points (WA)
11707	Château La Fleur de Gay 2010	Pomerol	750	2010	12	$182.16	$60.00	$113.16	93	93			A pretty, elegant wine that is 100% Merlot but a very limited production (around 700-800 cases in most years), the 2010 displays good integration of oak and mulberry, plum and black raspberry fruit intermixed with some licorice, underbrush, vanillin and spice box. This is a voluptuously textured, round, seductive style of Pomerol to drink over the next 12-15 years. -93 Points (WA)
15142	Château Le Gay 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	12	$135.00	$35.00	$94.75	91				Beautiful aromatics of ripe red berries and sweet jasmine and violets. An elegant, feminine wine which is precise and detailed with excellent intensity and vibrancy on the palate for this vintage. A real standout among a flight of Pomerols - one of the best in the 2013 vintage. -93 Points (Jeannie Cho Lee)
16611	Château Le Gay 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$178.99	$60.00	$109.99	93	92			The 2014 Le Gay is blessed with a fabulous bouquet of brambly red berry fruit tinged with black truffle, roasted chestnut and just a hint of hung game. There is marvelous energy here, the aromatics keeping you engaged. The palate is medium-bodied with superb purity, certainly very well balanced with a fine bead of acidity. Sure, there is a veneer of vanilla oak to be assimilated on the finish, but there is such depth and persistence that this will be no problem. This surpasses my expectations from barrel and continues the fine form of this Pomerol estate. -93 Points (WA)
10649	Château L'Eglise Clinet 2009	Pomerol	750	2009	6	$773.45	$225.00	$514.70	99+		97		Proprietor Denis Durantou has produced a blockbuster Pomerol from a blend of 85% Merlot and 15% Cabernet Franc, tipping the scales at just over 14.5% natural alcohol. A riveting wine, pure, elegant, but at the same time, extremely powerful and concentrated, with stunning texture, opulence and density, the tannins are abundant, and the wine certainly in need of a decade of cellaring. Fabulous creme de cassis and cherry liqueur notes are intertwined with hints of licorice, truffle, and graphite. Full and rich, but still in an infantile state of development, this wine needs to be cellared for 10 years but should keep for five decades or more. This 2009 is absolutely profound. -99+ Points (WA)
11816	Château L'Eglise Clinet 2010	Pomerol	750	2010	6	$809.06	$300.00	$464.06	96+	96			The 2010 is a profound effort, but it needs to be forgotten for at least a decade. This opaque purple wine offers up notes of caramelized black currant and black cherry candies intermixed with some very high class, subtle vanillin and toast. Hints of licorice, mocha and perhaps even a touch of chocolate are also present in this full-bodied, super-duper, concentrated, classic wine, which has everything in perfect proportions. But in the finish, its whoppingly big tannins kick in and basically announce that drinking this wine now would be infanticide. Look for this wine to last for at least 50+ years. -96+ Points (WA)
13001	Château L'Eglise Clinet 2011	Pomerol	750	2011	6	$273.76	$70.00	$193.26	95	92	94		With a dense ruby/purple color is followed by a pure nose of mulberries, cherry liqueur and spring flowers, but no hint of oak, this full-bodied, opulent, rich beauty exhibits impressive purity, texture, richness and length. Not as structured or tannic as Trotanoy, it moves more in the direction of the opulence and flashy, showy fruit of Hosanna and Petrus. It should drink well for 15-20 years. -95 Points (WA)
14194	Château L'Eglise Clinet 2012	Pomerol	750	2012	6	$389.99	$150.00	$217.49	96	94			A gorgeous wine from proprietor Denis Durantou, this blend of 85% Merlot and 15% Cabernet Franc is an inky purple color, with gorgeous purity of black raspberries, blackcurrants and blackberry with a hint of truffle and spring flowers. Its is full-bodied, opulent and a tour de force in this vintage. Great presence on the palate, fabulous purity and a long finish make for a magnificent bottle of wine to drink over the next 20-some years. -96 Points (WA)
15127	Château L'Eglise Clinet 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	6	$298.00	$80.00	$206.00	94				The 2013 L'Eglise Clinet has a very precise, tightly wound bouquet with limestone-tinged, brambly red berry fruit, the Merlot still very expressive and imparting comely floral scents. There is something almost Burgundy-like about the nose. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin surrounding a core of citrus-fresh, lively red fruit, silky smooth in texture, approachable in style, with an almost symmetrical finish. This was a great L'Eglise-Clinet in barrel in the context of the vintage and it remains a very persuasive wine in bottle. Bravo Denis Durantou - a winemaker that can overcome even the most deplorable of growing seasons! -94 Points (WA)
16468	Château L'Eglise Clinet 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	6	$329.99	$80.00	$237.99	95	94	97		The purity of fruit is so alluring in this wine. Aromas of crushed berries, lemon rind and flowers follow through to a full body, firm and silky tannins and a long and flavorful finish. All in finesse and texture. So fine and persistent. Try in 2022 but already an inspiration to taste. -97 Points (JS)
7597	Château L'Evangile 2006	Pomerol	750	2006	12	$249.32	$70.00	$168.82	93	90		92	The sexy, dark ruby/purple-tinged 2006 l'Evangile achieved 14% natural alcohol, as high as any of the great vintages at this estate. Abundant amounts of dark raspberry and black cherry fruit intertwined with sweet plums and hints of figs as well as spring flowers jump from the glass of this medium to full-bodied, fleshy, supple-textured, silky wine. Drink it now or cellar it for 15-20 years. -93 Points (WA)
9302	Château L'Evangile 2008	Pomerol	750	2008	12	$204.98	$70.00	$124.48	94	93			A 2,700-case blend of 88% Merlot and 12% Cabernet Franc cropped at a low 27 hectoliters per hectare (compare that with 39 hectoliters per hectare in 2009 and 31 in 2010), this superb claret was aged 18 months in 75% new French oak. Mulberry, spring flower, black cherry and raspberry characteristics as well as hints of spice and coffee emerge from this full-bodied, opulent, structured beauty. It should age effortlessly for 15-20 years. -94 Points (WA)
10583	Château L'Evangile 2009	Pomerol	750	2009	12	$507.83	$150.00	$335.33	100	97	97		An astonishing effort from the Rothschild family, the 2009 l'Evangile may be the reference point offering from this estate for decades to come. A blend of 95% Merlot and 5% Cabernet Franc aged in 100% new oak, with 15% natural alcohol, it exhibits a sumptuous bouquet of caramels, black raspberry liqueur, blackberries, violets, graphite and truffles. Thick, viscous flavors are reminiscent of such super-ripe vintages as 1982, 1959, 1949 and 1947. The striking aromatics, massive, full-bodied mouthfeel and multilayered palate that resembles a skyscraper in the mouth offer an abject lesson in great winemaking, extraordinary terroir, and the ability to combine power with precision, elegance and freshness. This is unquestionably a huge wine, but it also possesses mindboggling complexity and finesse. Because of its sheer extract and velvety personality, it will be drinkable in 4-5 years, and will keep for four decades or more where well-stored. The most profound L'Evangile ever made? -100 Points (WA)
11771	Château L'Evangile 2010	Pomerol	750	2010	6	$362.30	$40.00	$316.30	98+	97	96		Another spectacular effort from L'Evangile, the 2010 is a close rival to the 2009 and should be fascinating to compare with that vintage over the next 30 or so years. Stunningly rich and black/purple in color, the 2010 L'Evangile offers up the tell-tale floral note as well as black raspberry jam intermixed with cassis and kirsch. There are also ethereal floral notes and a hint of background oak. The pH is slightly above average (3.7 versus the pH of 4.0 that the 2009 and 2000 possessed). This is a massive, rich, very impressive L'Evangile, and readers should take note of the "+" in my rating, which could certainly push this wine way up there. Remarkably, I was shocked when I learned that this wine was aged in 100% new oak, as the oak is a background element in this blockbuster l'Evangile. Forget it for 3-5 years, and drink it over the following 30-40. -98+ Points (WA)

Loam and bittersweet cocoa notes check in on the finish, endowed with ample buried acidity. Should stretch out pleasantly, but this will need a little more time than most other 2011 Pomerols to round into form. -93 Points (WA)
13951	Château L'Evangile 2012	Pomerol	750	2012	6	$313.29	$120.00	$175.29	94	94			A dense, dark, woody style, with loads of tobacco, charcoal and tar holding sway over steeped plum, black currant and Black Mission fig flavors. Shows a serious graphite bolt on the finish, along with a tug of dark earth. A rather powerful rendition of Pomerol that will need some time to stretch out fully. -94 Points (WS)
15048	Château L'Evangile 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	6	$274.00	$70.00	$193.50		92			Not shy, with charcoal and bitter cocoa notes, accented by plenty of tobacco details. The core of dark plum, currant paste and fig flavors pulls all the elements together through the finish. A frankly muscular style that is both ambitious and surprisingly successful in this vintage. Best from 2018 through 2028. -92 Points (WS)

The palate is medium-bodied with a slightly grainy texture, lovely black fruit here laced with Earl Grey, spice and sage, quite intense and fanning out gloriously towards the long finish. This seems to have gained precision after bottling and I did warn that it may merit a higher score. This is a deeply impressive L'Evangile that might challenge Lafite-Rothschild in the long term. Chapeau! -95 Points (WA)

Produced by the Delon family of Léoville Las Cases in Saint-Julien, it is a wine for aging. Drink from 2020, but the wine will be developing for more years after that. -92 Points (WE)
16396	Château Nenin 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$78.98	$20.00	$55.98	92	91		91	The 2014 Nenin was a bit of a whipcracker when I tasted it from barrel, so I was intrigued to find whether it would replicate that performance now in bottle. The bouquet is very well defined, perhaps more minerally and taut than previous vintages with truffle-tinged red berry fruit unfurling in the glass. There is also a potent tang of the sea (kelp or oyster shell perhaps). The palate is very well balanced, supple in the mouth, but it exerts a pleasant grip in the mouth and much more purity than vintages tasted over the 1990s and 2000s. This builds on that promise in barrel and is really quite a lovely Pomerol deserving of its newly designed label. -92 Points (WA)
7647	Château Petit Village 2006	Pomerol	750	2006	12	$90.57	$35.00	$50.32				91	A rich, sweet wine, showing the great improvements to this chateau in recent vintages. 14962	Château Petit Village 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	12	$99.00	$20.00	$76.00		88		89	This has good flesh and polish, with a core of raspberry, plum and blackberry compote notes that pump through the rounded, anise-edged finish. A flicker of singed apple wood gives this just enough contrast and spine. Drink now through 2021. 1,667 cases made. -88 Points (WS)
16502	Château Petit Village 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	12	$124.99	$35.00	$84.74	88	91			Solidly built, with a warm ganache frame around a core of steeped plum and blackberry fruit. 9417	Château Rouget 2008	Pomerol	750	2008	12	$67.16	$25.00	$38.41	91				Similar in style to the 2008 Bon Pasteur, the dark ruby/plum-colored 2008 Rouget is unquestionably a sleeper of the vintage. Notes of mulberries, black currants and sandy, loamy soil as well as a lush, seductive, medium to full-bodied mouthfeel and good purity as well as depth suggest it can be drunk now and over the next decade or more. -91 Points (WA)
10487	Château Rouget 2009	Pomerol	750	2009	12	$86.58	$30.00	$52.08	92		94	92	This opulent, sexy 2009 Rouget is composed of primarily Merlot blended with a touch of Cabernet Franc. Sandy, loamy soil notes interwoven with kirsch and Provencal garrigue jump from the glass of this full-bodied, opulent, rich Pomerol. Abundant fruit on the attack, mid-palate and finish characterize this over-achiever. Consume it over the next 15 years. -92 Points (WA)
14234	Château Rouget 2012	Pomerol	750	2012	12	$73.96	$30.00	$39.46	92				This property has been on the qualitative high road for a number of years, and the 2012 continues that path. Deep ruby/purple, with wonderfully sweet, earthy, black cherry and blackcurrant fruit jumping from the glass, it is broad, opulent, beautifully textured and juicy. This is a sexy, lush, heady Pomerol to drink now and over the next 15 or more years. Full, long and impressive, there is no reason to defer your gratification with this beauty. -92 Points (WA)

With its 30% Cabernet Franc it is perfumed and ripe, giving delicious black fruits as well as a firmer structure. The wine is set for a long aging with great potential. Drink from 2024. -94 Points (WE)
16621	Château Trotanoy 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	6	$234.98	$70.00	$154.48	97	95		95	The 2014 Trotanoy had (que surprise!) closed down on the nose compared to its JP Moueix stablemates. A few swirls of the glass and it reveals very precise, mineral-soaked black fruit laced with black truffle and subtle sous-bois aromas. It soon gathers momentum and the aromas were gaining more and more intensity after five minutes. The palate is outstanding. There is brilliant structure here, immense and almost staggering purity, incredible focus and tension with an electrifying spiciness on the finish. Best Pomerol of the vintage? -97 Points (WA)

15395	Château La Violette 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	6	$365.00	$100.00	$250.00	91	90			The 2013 La Violette has a perfumed bouquet with candied orange peel infusing the red berry fruit, a touch of confectionary shop here, nicely defined and gaining intensity in the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with tannin, sappy red berry fruit, a hint of spice, nice cohesion as its leads into what for La Violette is a relatively lean finish, but it retains lovely balance and joie de vivre. Drink this now and over the next decade. -91 Points (WS)
16610	Château La Violette 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	6	$399.99	$120.00	$261.99	93	92			The 2014 La Violette has a powerful bouquet that is slightly gamey like its sibling Le Gay: plenty of red and black fruit infused with clove, crushed violets and singed leather. Maybe this is less glossy than previous vintages of La Violette that tends to be extremely polished. The palate is medium-bodied with svelte tannins. There is a fine bead of acidity and the texture is unashamedly silky smooth; plush with cassis, blueberry and raspberry coulis flourishing on the typically sumptuous finish. This is very seductive: a Pomerol with panache. It should drink well for 15-20 years. This is gorgeous. -93 Points (WA)
8416	Vieux Château Certan 2007	Pomerol	750	2007	12	$183.18	$50.00	$125.68	91	91			Tasted at BI Wine & Spirits' 10-Year On tasting, the 2007 Vieux Chateau Certan offers enticing aromas of black fruit, melted tar, mint, rooibos tea and undergrowth—complex and enticing, almost matching L'Eglise-Clinet in terms of sophistication. The palate is medium-bodied with sappy red berry fruit on the entry and white pepper and cloves on the mid-palate, while the Cabernet component lends structure and a sense of symmetry towards the finish. This is just beginning to drink now but should last for another 8-10 years. Tasted February 2017. -91 Points (WA)
13058/ 13066	Vieux Château Certan 2011	Pomerol	750	2011	12	$263.58	$80.00	$171.58	91	94	96		This is a fleshy, generous, full bodied Pomerol with a detailed fruit profile and great depth. Flavours range from violets, plums, black berries with hints of mocha and cedar. The fruit was obviously perfectly ripe with polished, generous tannins and a very long finish. The quantity produced this year is the same as in 2010 with 29% of Cabernet Franc used in the blend. A phenomenal wine and my top wine from Pomerol. -96 Points (Jeannie Cho Lee)
14185	Vieux Château Certan 2012	Pomerol	750	2012	12	$282.79	$100.00	$167.79	95	94		95	Tasted blind at the Southwold Bordeaux tasting. The 2012 Vieux Château Certan has a potent, smoke, cooked meat, Cabernet Franc-scented bouquet that is beautifully defined—quintessentially Pomerol. You want typicité? Come right here. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, quite gentle as it sashays across the mouth. The acidity is very well judged and leads to an elegant tobacco tinged finish. Alexandre and Guillaume Thienpont have produced one of the finest wines of the Right Bank in 2012, one that is up there with the greats. Tasted January 2016. -95 Points (WA)
15126/ 15128	Vieux Château Certan 2013	Pomerol	750	2013	12	$249.00	$70.00	$168.50	92	92		94	With a higher proportion of Merlot (92%) than usual, this is a round, ripe wine released at just 20% of normal production. The generous texture and tannins are well integrated into the rich fruit. It's juicy, broad and showing the typical acidity of the vintage. With its tannic structure, the wine will age well. Drink from 2020. -94 Points (WE)
16603/ 16608	Vieux Château Certan 2014	Pomerol	750	2014	6	$279.98	$70.00	$199.48	96	96		97	The 2014 Vieux Chateau Certan is a blend of 80% Merlot, 19% Cabernet Franc and 1% Cabernet Sauvignon, picked in three stages: 19-20 September, 29 September to 2 October, and 7 and 8 October. The yields came in at 38.7 hectoliters per hectare with 13.4% alcohol. It was one of my stars of the vintage and now in bottle, I find no reason to change that. It is endowed with an exquisite bouquet, really one of the best I encountered throughout my tastings: perfumed blackberry, wild strawberry, cold stone and wilted rose petals. Like in barrel, it is not powerful, yet it is blessed with wondrous precision. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp acidity and fine tannin, a slightly masculine VCC due to its linearity and precision. There is tension here from start to finish, a sophisticated and cerebral Pomerol that transcends the growing season. This is unashamedly classic in style, fanning out towards the mineral-rich finish with great frisson and energy. A cellar without the 2014 Vieux-Château-Certan would be a great pity. -96 Points (WA)
16615	Château Cap St-George 2014	St.Emilion Satellites	750	2014	12	$38.99	$10.00	$27.49					91% Merlot & 9% Cabernet Franc. There's a density and weight of flavour within the wine and tannins that points to low yields, care and attention and craftsmanship, all of which suggest this wine will continue to develop seamlessly. Whilst densely-flavoured, neither the grip of tannins, nor the traditional Bordelaise oak component, are overt or unbalanced: they merely exist to complement and support the weight of fruit. For a two years old wine, this holds a rich future. (Rob Maculloch, MW)

10509	Château L'Arrosee 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$89.68	$30.00	$55.18	91	91			It has been many years since l'Arrosee made a wine this brilliant. Always one of the more delicate, Burgundian-styled St.-Emilions, the 2009 exhibits seductive, beautiful raspberry and black cherry fruit intermixed with hints of minerality as well as spicy oak. Lavishly concentrated, full and fresh, ethereal in both its texture and weight, and light on its feet, it can be drunk early in life yet has the stuffing and balance to last 20-25+ years. -91 Points (WA)

The limestone soils of Ausone appear to have been the perfect foil for resisting the extreme heat and drought of June, July and August, 2003. This black/purple-colored effort boasts a glorious nose of violets, truffles, lead pencil shavings, blueberry and blackberry liqueur. Full-bodied with staggering concentration, a voluptuous texture, low acidity and well-integrated, melted tannins, this deep, multidimensional, profound Bordeaux is beginning to drink exceptionally well. It should continue to do so for another two decades or more. -100 Points (WA)

Its deep ruby/purple hue is accompanied by a beautiful nose of spring flowers, raspberries, black currants, and crushed rocks. The wine is dense, medium to full-bodied, and pure with sweet tannin as well as a surprisingly evolved, forward style. It is one of the few Ausones I have tasted that can be drunk with great pleasure at this stage, yet it promises to evolve for two decades. -94 Points (WA)

Backward and intense, this wine offers up notes of crushed chalk/rock minerality interwoven with blueberry, black raspberry and cassis as well as some graphite and vanillin. It is incredibly rich but at the same time precise, fresh and vivacious. This is a super wine, but it will require enormous patience from its potential suitors. 15125	Château Ausone Grand Cru A 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	6	$799.00	$225.00	$540.25	94					Probably the wine of the vintage, once again. Only 9,000 bottles of the 2013 Ausone were produced, as crop size was 50% of normal. However, proprietor Alain Vauthier and his daughter certainly have proven a truly great wine can be produced in some of the most trying conditions Bordeaux wine producers have had to deal with over the last 20 years. Yields were only 22 hectoliters per hectare and the final blend was 55% Cabernet Franc and 45% Merlot. The haunting aromas of wet rocks, spring flowers, blue and black fruits and forest floor are followed by an incredibly dense, attractive wine with sweet tannin, stunning concentration and texture, medium body and a depth that is essentially unreal in a vintage such as this. The wine is a superb example of great winemaking under the most difficult circumstances. Unlike more recent Ausones, this should be reasonably drinkable in 5-6 years and yet be capable of lasting 25-30. -94 Points (WA)
16642/ 16649	Château Ausone Grand Cru A 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$829.99	$150.00	$657.49	95			100	97	The 2014 Ausone, a blend of 60% Cabernet Franc and 40% Merlot, was matured in barrel for 20 months with 85% new oak. Compared to the Chapelle d'Ausone, this Grand Vin demanded gentle coaxing from the glass. It eventually unfurls to reveal mineral-rich red berry fruit, oregano, orange blossom and later on blackcurrant winegums. It displays superb delineation. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin. There is an almost sorbet-like freshness conferred upon this Saint Emilion by the growing season, very harmonious and poised with one of the most precise and tensile finishes that you will find this vintage. One of the stars of the vintage, this may merit a higher score with bottle age. This is a great success. -95 Points (WA)
11755	Château Barde-Haut 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$66.14	$20.00	$43.14	92	93				Loads of blueberry, black cherry and dusty, loamy soil notes as well as hints of herbs, licorice and incense jump from the glass of this well-endowed, supple wine. Tannins are sweet and the acidity sufficient to give delineation to the wine. Full-bodied and impressively endowed, it should drink well over the next 10-15 years. The 2010 Barde-Haut is a delicious, seductive style of St.-Emilion made from 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc. Proprietress Helene Garcin-Leveque purchased the estate in 2000 and has been pushing quality ever since. -92 Points (WA)
14079	Château Barde-Haut 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$55.26	$20.00	$32.26	90	92	92			Offers lovely purity and mouthfeel, with notes of velvety plum, boysenberry and cherry preserves gliding easily. Features anise and ganache hints, with light charcoal and tobacco details on the finish. Shows well-integrated grip, and should cellar well. Best from 2017 through 2027. -92 Points (WS)
15187	Château Barde-Haut 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$46.00	$10.00	$34.50	88	88				A light savory hint is quickly absorbed by the core of soft plum and blueberry fruit, with light anise and cocoa notes holding sway on the modestly fleshy finish. Drink now through 2019. -88 Points (WS)
16577	Château Barde-Haut 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$55.99	$15.00	$38.74	91	91	94			Very aromatic and chalky on the nose with blackberries and blackcurrants. Licorice, too. Full to medium body, savory and chewy tannins, yet this always remains polished with a long and pretty finish. Drink in 2020, but hard not to drink now. -94 Points (JS)
7551	Château Beau-Sejour Becot Grand Cru B 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$110.92	$45.00	$59.17	90	90			94	Although it begins with austerity, its acidity and tannins dominant, the palate opens beyond its youthfulness after a few moments. It becomes dark and powerful, certainly still dry tannic, but the fruit is generous, and the final taste is of beautiful, ripe fruits. -94 Points (WE)
8578	Château Beau-Sejour Becot Grand Cru B 2007	St. Emilion	750	2007	12	$79.38	$25.00	$50.63					93	With plenty of new wood, the wine has a velvet character, smooth and round. Only gradually does a plum skin, bitter chocolate element come in, giving structure and weight. This is a wine that should age well. -93 Points (WE)
9415	Château Beau-Sejour Becot Grand Cru B 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$94.04	$30.00	$59.54	91+				93	This exceptional wine is presently as impressive as the 2010, but obviously it is much more drinkable. Made from yields of 32 hectoliters per hectare with 14% natural alcohol, this blend of 70% Merlot, 24% Cabernet Franc and 6% Cabernet Sauvignon reveals some spicy new oak along with lots of vanillin, underbrush, black currants and black cherry jam. Dense ruby/purple-colored and full-bodied with moderate tannin, it is more supple and forward than the 2010. Nevertheless, this big 2008 needs 2-3 years of cellaring and should keep for 15-20 years. -91+ Points (WA)
15683	Château Beau-Sejour Becot Grand Cru B 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	6	$169.10	$60.00	$100.10	93+	93	95	95		In the opulent style of superripe Merlot, this is a rich wine that delivers generous black currant fruits with tannins that are dense but not overwhelming. It is finely structured, proud of its elegance, stylish fruit and tannin balance. The wine is set for long-term aging, but will certainly be drinkable in 5–10 years. -95 Points (WE)
7658	Château Beausejour Duffau-Lagarosse Grand Cru B 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$111.61	$45.00	$59.86	89					With such a great terroir, I hope to one day taste another wine like their immortal 1990. Dark raspberries, crushed rock, and a hint of blueberry are present in this medium-bodied, very good wine that wins points on the sheer complexity of its noble aromatics. The flavors don't quite live up to that, but they are medium-bodied, display a certain angularity, and like so many vintages, the smell is almost worth the price of admission. -89 Points (WA)
9984	Château Beausejour Duffau-Lagarosse Grand Cru B 2008	St. Emilion	375	2008	24	$39.56	$10.00	$28.06	89+	91			91	Dense and fleshy, with coffee, plum, prune, cocoa and black currant notes allied to a grippy frame. The finish is tight but long, with dark fig pushing through. A touch brooding now, but the stuffing is there. -91 Points (WS)

11836	Château Beausejour Duffau-Lagarosse Grand Cru B 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$529.19	$170.00	$333.69	100	95		94	The 2010 is a more structured, masculine and steely version of the utterly compelling 2009. Tasting like black raspberry confiture with subtle notes of graphite and crushed chalk along with enormous floral notes, the wine displays a slightly smoky character but a voluptuous attack, mid-palate and finish. Its is full-bodied and massively endowed, with every component perfectly etched in this extraordinary wine, which should be drinkable after 7-8 years of bottle age and last for a half-century or more. This is brilliant stuff. Composed of 73% Merlot, 23% Cabernet Franc and 4% Cabernet Sauvignon from yields of 21 hectoliters per hectare, the alcohol is the highest ever registered at Beausejour-Duffau, coming in at 15%, but remarkably, the pH is modest and the acids relatively elevated, giving the wine an astonishing freshness and precision that is hard to believe in view of its power, density and length. Anticipated maturity: 2025-2055+. -100 Points (WA)
15131	Château Beausejour Duffau-Lagarosse Grand Cru B 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$130.00	$35.00	$89.75	90	89			The 2013 Beauséjour (Duffau Lagarosse) offers impressive intensity given the growing season with crisp and pure dark cherries, raspberry coulis and subtle earthy bordering upon loamy scents. The oak here is nicely enmeshed and attests some clever winemaking in this challenging season. The palate is well balanced with a little chewiness on the entry. There is admirable weight here, even if I discerned more finesse and precision on the 2013 Pavie-Macquin. Still, this constitutes a sterling effort and it should give 10 to 15 years of pleasure, possibly longer. -90 Points (WA)
16472	Château Beausejour Duffau-Lagarosse Grand Cru B 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$149.99	$40.00	$103.99		94	94		This is full of muscular graphite and tobacco notes, holding sway over a core of slightly exotic mulled fig and warm black currant sauce. A ganache edge lines the finish, but a pure fruit detail echoes longest. This will be exceptional when the elements meld fully. Best from 2022 through 2035. -94 Points (WS)
16622	Château Bélair-Monange Grand Cru B 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$159.99	$45.00	$108.24	92	95		96	With the amalgamation of Château Magdelaine into this one property, the estate is now a considerable 58 acres. The wine is now performing in top gear. Powerful tannins drive the mainly Merlot blend with 10% Cabernet Franc. It still shows signs of the wood aging and these will disappear to leave a richly endowed wine with a fine future. Drink from 2026. -96 Points (WE)
6417	Château Bellevue Mondotte 2005	St. Emilion	750	2005	12	$335.22	$35.00	$294.97	100	97			Made up of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc, the opaque bluish/purple 2005 from Bellevue-Mondotte offers amazing chocolate espresso notes along with blueberry and blackberry liqueur, some incense and a hint of flowers. Full-bodied and staggeringly concentrated, this blockbuster wine (in a blockbuster vintage) is unreal. Talk about a wine that is beyond belief – this is a great achievement from Chantal and Gérard Perse. Drink it over the next 25-30 years. Sadly, there were only 340 or so cases produced. -100 Points (WA)
7602/7615	Château Bellevue Mondotte 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	6	$456.95	$150.00	$284.45	95+	93			This tiny, 5-acre vineyard with nearly 50-year old vines produces only 4,000 bottles from a blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc. The broodingly tannic, backward 2006 is remarkably concentrated, pure, and deep. It is an amazing tour de force in winemaking, but like nearly all the Perse 2006s, it is a massively built vin de garde with no compromises meant for serious connoisseurs and long-term cellaring. Forget it for 7-8 years, and drink it over the following 25-30. -95+ Points (WA)
8642	Château Bellevue Mondotte 2007	St. Emilion	750	2007	12	$457.96	$130.00	$308.46	94				Very little wine is produced (about 400 cases) from this tiny 5-acre vineyard, but it is always among the most concentrated and richest of Bordeaux. The inky/purple-colored 2007 offers sweet cassis fruit notes interwoven with notions of graphite, chalk dust, and toast. Full-bodied with terrific purity and intensity (14.5% alcohol), it should drink well for 20+ years. -94 Points (WA)
9450	Château Bellevue Mondotte 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$437.56	$150.00	$265.06	95+				An extraordinary effort in this vintage, this 2008 was made from lower yields than the 2010 (the 2008's equaled 20 hectoliters per hectare) and is a blend of 90% Merlot and equal parts Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon that came in at 14% natural alcohol. Michel Rolland has been the consultant for all the Perse estates since their acquisition, and the 2008's fruit was harvested very late, October 20. The result is a backward, dense purple-colored wine revealing a crushed rock-like liqueur along with highly extracted, massive flavors of black currants, sweet cherries, licorice and toast. This full-bodied effort requires 5-6 years of bottle age and should last for 25-30 years. -95+ Points (WA)
10648	Château Bellevue Mondotte 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$605.53	$170.00	$410.03	100	95			The inky/blue/purple-colored 2009 Bellevue Mondotte offers aromas of creme de cassis, mulberries, licorice, white flowers, forest floor and candied cherries. Extremely thick, rich and full-bodied, it is nearly overwhelming in its textural richness, colossal concentration and mind-blowing finish that lasts nearly a minute. Undeniably massive and over-sized, but perfectly balanced, it is made for those looking for something to put away for 30-50+ years. One has to admire a proprietor who is making a wine for the history books, not for near-term gratification. Bellevue Mondotte is generally a blend of approximately 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon. Since Perse got control of this estate and renovated the cellars, he has been draconian in reducing yields, which were a mere 22 hectoliters per hectare in 2009. The fruit was picked very ripe and the wine was fermented in oak tanks with malolactic in barrel, aged on its lees (a la Burgundy), and bottled unfined and unfiltered. At all the Perse properties the wine stays in oak about six months longer than at other Bordeaux estates. -100 Points (WA)
12222	Château Bellevue Mondotte 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	6	$609.60	$200.00	$379.60	95+				Coming in at 14.3%, a sensational, rather massive example for a 2010, this opaque purple wine offers up notes of subtle barbecue smoke, blackberry and cassis as well as hints of lead pencil shavings and a confiture of red and black fruits in the mouth. Full-bodied, unctuously textured and excruciatingly tannic, this is a big, blockbuster style of wine meant for 10-50+ years of cellaring. -95+ Points (WA)
13004	Château Bellevue Mondotte 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	6	$294.11	$80.00	$202.11	95+	93	93		A little gem of an estate owned by the Perse family, the 2011 Bellevue Mondotte is composed of 90% Merlot, 5% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Cabernet Franc. This super, highly concentrated wine (please don't make the mistake of saying "over-extracted" as there is not a bit of bitterness to be found) is the product of tiny yields and a late harvest. A thick, port-like, black/ruby/purple color is followed by a powerful, rich, exceptionally pure wine with stunning balance. From a vintage where most wines will need to be consumed within their first 15-20 years of life, this cuvee will undoubtedly last 30 or more. -95+ Points (WA)
14054	Château Bellevue Mondotte 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	6	$297.95	$100.00	$182.95	96				The smallest of the Perse estates, this tiny property situated on pure limestone produces a wine made from a blend of 90% Merlot and the rest equal parts Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon. One of the superstars of this vintage, the 2012 is opaque purple and exhibits tremendous concentration and richness, a full-bodied mouthfeel, and a layered texture that builds incrementally without any heaviness or cloying characteristics. This is stunning, great, old-style, yet progressively made Bordeaux to drink over the next 25-30 years. The alcohol level is 14.3%. -96 Points (WA)
12350	Château Bellevue 2010	St. Emilion	375	2010	24	$70.21	$25.00	$41.46		92			Very alluring, with dense but silky-textured layers of boysenberry, fig and blackberry fruit. As this moves toward the finish, extra briar, toasted wood spice and black licorice notes emerge, lending drive and greater definition, without overshadowing the pure fruit. -92 points (WS)
11743	Château Bellevue 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$135.34	$45.00	$83.59
12847	Château Bellevue 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$99.73	$30.00	$65.23	89+	91			Sports lush notes of blueberry compote, plum paste and fig preserves, with ample layers of charcoal, tobacco and singed anise flavors. Dense and chewy, showing integrated grip and a long beam of powerful fruit in reserve on the finish. This has heft and the cut to match. -91 Points (WS)
14103	Château Bellevue 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$98.51	$35.00	$58.26	90+	91			This is alluring, with a well-melded mix of plum sauce, melted licorice and raspberry coulis flavors, carried by polished tannins and flowing through a graphite-edged finish. Very solid, with latent grip. Should cellar well. Best from 2017 through 2023. -91 Points (WS)

16521	Château Bellevue 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$78.99	$25.00	$50.24		92		93	The wine from this estate perched high above Château Angéus is tight and mineral. While the dark dense tannins are to the fore, it also has great fruits. The acidity and the crisp texture give the wine both its intensity and its potential. Drink from 2025. -93 Points (WS)
10552	Château Bellisle Mondotte 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$35.62	$5.00	$29.87	89	90			This generous red offers ripe plum, espresso and smoke flavors that are firm and rather chappy, with a tobacco and tar finish. Bold yet smooth. -90 Points (WS)
14088	Château Bellisle Mondotte 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$50.28	$20.00	$27.28					Displays a soft, fleshy edge and a core of heady cherry sauce, boysenberry confiture and melted red licorice. -Barrel Tasting Note (WS)
13065	Château Berliquet 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$69.20	$25.00	$40.45		89	91		This shows lots of energy and beauty. Full body with lively fruit, tannins and acidity. Intense. Impressive. People need to understand where this is: just next to Canon. -91 points (JS)
15134	Château Berliquet 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$48.50	$10.00	$37.00		89			Inviting, with a lush beam of raspberry pâte de fruit coursing through, while lively licorice, fruitcake and singed cinnamon notes gild the edges. A floral hint at the end imparts nice lift. Delicious. Drink now through 2020. 1,000 cases made. -89 Points (WS)
16476	Château Berliquet 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$62.99	$20.00	$39.99	89+	91	93		This is really structured with chalk, dark-chocolate, berry and walnut character. Full-bodied, tight and focused. Long finish. Serious wine that's very mineral. Better in 2020 but on it already. -93 Points (JS)
8647	Château Canon Grand Cru B 2007	St. Emilion	750	2007	12	$109.91	$35.00	$69.66				92	A big, bitter chocolate and new wood-dominated wine, the wine's spice coming from wood and also fig and cocoa flavors. There is acidity, and fresh berry fruits coming through the dark, black character. -92 Points (WE)
11695	Château Canon Grand Cru B 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$253.41	$80.00	$161.41	93	93	96	95	Wonderful nose with strawberries, cherry blossom, and vanilla. The red opens up with blueberries, milk chocolate and sweet licorice. Full and juicy on palate with pure dark fruit and velvety tannins. So nicely layered texture and long in the finish with red fruit and crushed chalk. The texture is superb. -96 points (JS)
13012	Château Canon Grand Cru B 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$178.09	$50.00	$120.59	93				The 2011 Canon is a blend of 70% Merlot and 30% Cabernet Franc. It is undoubtedly one of the stars of the vintage, certainly one of the strongest offerings from Saint Emilion. The nose is bright, animated and playful with copious red cherries, fresh strawberry and dark plum aromas bursting from the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, backward compared to more extrovert Saint Emilions such as La Mondotte—a tensile, poised Saint Emilion that is destined to last longer than its peers. Classic in style, endearing and mineral-driven, this is a superb wine from the estate. This is a supreme success courtesy of former winemaker, John Kolasa. Tasted May 2015. -93 Points (WA)
14979	Château Canon Grand Cru B 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$99.00	$30.00	$64.50				92	Showing how Saint-Emilion came out well in 2013, this wine has ripe and juicy Merlot fruits topped with perfumed Cabernet Franc. Rich and structured, it's a wine for aging over the medium-term with its layers of tannins under the fruit. Drink from 2020. -92 Points (WE)
10608	Château Canon La Gaffeliere Grand Cru B 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$188.93	$60.00	$119.93	95	96	97	95	An intriguing blend of nearly 50% Merlot, a whopping 35% Cabernet Franc and the rest Cabernet Sauvignon (a somewhat unusual combination for this region), the 2009 reminds me of the 1990. A big, inky/purple-tinged wine with just over 14% natural alcohol, it exhibits exotic, flamboyant aromas of espresso roast, incense, sweet black cherries, black currants, licorice, asphalt, barbecue smoke, Christmas fruitcake and herbs. Full-bodied with silky tannins, luscious fruit, a hedonistic yet complex personality, low acidity, noticeable tannin and enviable purity, this head-turning beauty can be enjoyed over the next 15-20 years. -95 Points (WA)
11682	Château Canon La Gaffeliere Grand Cru B 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$178.09	$60.00	$109.09	95	96	95		This takes the power of the vintage and puts it in its pocket for later, preferring instead to let mouthwatering briar, loganberry, mulberry and blackberry fruit strut its way forward, enlivened with roasted wood spice and supported by suavely but thoroughly embedded iron-tinged structure. Should cruise for two decades. # 2 on Top 100 wines of 2013. -96 Points (WS)
12911	Château Canon La Gaffeliere Grand Cru B 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$106.85	$20.00	$83.85		93		92	Offers a deliciously mouthwatering range of red currant, damson plum, blackberry and loganberry fruit, spiced with hints of black tea and cinnamon and backed by a long, briary, fine-grained finish. A sleek, refined wine that should age well. -93 Points (WE)
15383	Château Canon La Gaffeliere Grand Cru B 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$110.00	$35.00	$69.75		92		93	This is a warm, rich wine with spicy black-fruit flavors. Touches of coffee have come through with the wood aging. Bright acidity gives a touch of freshness to the firm tannins at the end. Drink this generous, while still serious wine from 2020. -93 points (WE)
16564	Château Canon La Gaffeliere Grand Cru B 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$124.99	$35.00	$84.74	92	95	93		This cuts a wide swath, with mouthwatering tobacco and warm ganache notes leading the way, followed by a wave of fig, blackberry and black currant preserves. Shows remarkable definition already, even though the structure is strident. Tempting now, but just put this in the back of the cellar. Best from 2020 through 2035. 4,083 cases made. -95 Points (WS)
7708	Château La Gaffeliere Grand Cru B 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$111.61	$45.00	$59.86				93	La Gaffelière, now under the expert guidance of Saint-Emilion's guru Stéphane Derenoncourt, is producing serious wine. None more so than this firmly closed but powerful and dense 2006. Bitter chocolate and dark tannins come together to form a shell covering the weight of the fruit. It will probably always be firm, but the black currant fruit flavors will come through eventually. -93 Points (WE)
11688	Château La Gaffeliere Grand Cru B 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$167.92	$50.00	$110.42	95+		97	95	The 2010's final blend of 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc offers up impressive levels of red, blue and black fruits as well as some toasty oak and crushed rock, giving it minerality. Of course, the acidity in this vintage, with its lower pHs than 2009, provide a freshness and precision that is rare for wines so rich. This wine has plenty of tannin, so give it 4-6 years of cellaring and drink it over the following 25-30 years. -95+ Points (WA)
15664	Château La Gaffeliere Grand Cru B 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$133.55	$50.00	$76.05				93	A hugely concentrated wine, it has a dark feel to it, mineral and structured. It shows spice, suggestions of the wood aging and always the ripest fruit. Drink from 2018. -93 Points (WE)
15211	Château La Gaffeliere Grand Cru B 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$80.00	$15.00	$62.75				94	An impressive, solidly tannic wine, this also manages to capture fresh fruits and acidity in a balanced package. The wine is firm, dark and designed for serious aging. It is packed with fruit tannins, structure and black currant fruitiness. Drink from 2022. -94 Points (WE)
10409	Château Cantenac 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$36.87	$10.00	$25.37		88			This thick, smooth red delivers earth and cola flavors, with notes of herb and tobacco. The tannins are a bit grippy, but the finish opens into notes of rose and vanilla. -88 Points (WS)
13031	Château Cantenac 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$30.53	$10.00	$19.03	89	88			A seductive, delicious, forward blend of 75% Merlot and 25% Cabernet Franc, the 2011 Cantenac displays a deep ruby/plum color along with sweet cherry, black currant, licorice and forest floor-like notes, medium to full body, and a juicy, succulent personality displaying none of the hard edges or hollowness that can plague some 2011s. Drink it over the next 10-12 years. It is a sleeper of the vintage. -89 Points (WA)
16641	Le Petit Cheval 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$282.99	$80.00	$190.99	91	91			The 2014 Le Petit Cheval, a blend of 52% Merlot and 48% Cabernet Franc, has a crisp, tightly wound bouquet with blackberry, black olive (as per its primeur sample) and a subtle estuarine undercurrent that becomes more conspicuous with aeration. The palate is medium-bodied with sappy red berry fruit intermingling with white pepper, clove and a pinch of Chinese five spice. It has moderate depth, a sense of approachability in that the tannins do not really grip the mouth, and the latter half appears appealingly smooth and harmonious. There are no rough edges here, just a touch of frisson on the saline finish. Very fine, a Saint Emilion Deuxième Vin to drink over the next decade. -91 Points (WA)

7905	Château Cheval Blanc Grand Cru A 2000	St. Emilion	750	2000	12	$1,559.38	$170.00	$1,363.88	99			97	Coming out of a relatively dormant state, this 2000 is a spectacular Cheval Blanc. Of recent vintages, I think only the 2009 can give it a run for its money. A blend of 53% Merlot and 47% Cabernet Franc, the wine has a sweet nose of menthol, melted licorice, boysenberry, blueberry, and cassis. A broad wine with compelling purity, a layered texture, and sweet tannin, with hints of coffee and earth in the background, this is by far the best Cheval Blanc since 1990 and before 2009. It is a legend in the making and can actually be drunk now, as the tannins have nearly melted away. This is a beauty with incredibly complex aromatics. Drink it over the next 25-30 years. -99 Points (WA)
8673	Château Cheval Blanc Grand Cru A 2007	St. Emilion	375	2007	24	$388.56	$40.00	$342.56	92	91			Deep colour. Nose strong on black fruit complexified by minty and grilled aromas. The full bodied palate is enjoyably fresh, and balanced by elegant and refined tannins on the finish. An outstanding vintage. -97 Points (Gilbert & Gaillard)
11848	Château Cheval Blanc Grand Cru A 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	6	$1,720.76	$200.00	$1,490.76	100	98		100	This is the finest Cheval Blanc for many years. It is, quite simply, magnificent. The wine shows the greatness of Cabernet Franc in the vintage, with 57% of the variety in the blend. It is beautifully structured and perfumed, with velvety tannins, balanced acidity and swathes of black-currant and black-cherry fruits. It's well on course to becoming a legendary wine. -100 Points (WE)
15033	Château Cheval Blanc Grand Cru A 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	6	$695.00	$130.00	$545.50	92	93		95	Smoky aromas and layers of tannin and fruit give this wine great complexity. It is smooth, juicy and fresh while also having perfumed tannins and an elegant, lightly mineral structure from the Cabernet Franc. The wine's cherries and red berries are still encased in the structure, allowing it to develop slowly. Drink from 2024. -95 Points (WE)
16640	Château Cheval Blanc Grand Cru A 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$769.99	$120.00	$631.99	96	97		96	This has dreamy aromas already, with notes of Lapsang souchong tea, smoldering cigar and cold charcoal wafting up from the core of dense yet supple currant, fig and blackberry preserves. A loamy edge thumps through the finish, giving this an addictive, head-bobbing bass line. Best from 2026 through 2040. -97 Points (WS)
12819	Château Cheval Noir 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	6	$56.99	$15.00	$39.74					Here is a big and solid wine, dominated by dark wood tannins. It is heavy on the toast. (WE)
15180	Château Clos de Sarpe 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$128.47	$50.00	$70.97	94				Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2011 Clos de Sarpe gives up notions of roasted coffee beans, smoked meats and chocolate-covered cherries over a core of blackberry tart and preserved plums with wafts of garrigue and dried herbs. Full-bodied, concentrated and packed with savory layers, it has a rock-solid frame of grainy tannins and wonderful freshness, finishing long and spicy. May 2018 -94 Points (WA)
10515	Château Clos Dubreuil 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	6	$153.21	$50.00	$95.71	94+				From a tiny, just under 10-acre vineyard east of St.-Emilion in the sector known as St.-Christophe des Bardes, this wine is 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc, tipping the scales at 14.9% alcohol. It was bottle unfiltered and unfiltered. Loads of chocolate, roasted espresso, blackberry and blueberry fruit notes along with some smoke and burning embers jump from a glass of this wine, which has terrific fruit intensity, a massive mouthfeel, yet not a trace of astringency or hardness. Velvety tannins, low acidity and an extraordinary, opulent, even sumptuous mouthfeel make for a wine to drink over the next 10-15 years. -94+ Points (WA)
11663	Château Clos Dubreuil 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	6	$165.88	$50.00	$108.38	94				Notes of licorice, blackberry and boysenberry fruit intermixed with some charcoal, burning embers and floral notes all jump from the glass of this rich, soft, succulent wine, which possesses terrific intensity and a hedonistic personality. It is not going to be a long-ager by 2010 standards, but for consumption over the next 10-15 years, it delivers tremendous appeal. I love this wine, which comes from a very tiny 10-acre vineyard situated to the east of St.-Emilion, not terribly far from Fleur Cardinale, Valandraud and Rol Valentin. A blend of 90% Merlot and 10 % Cabernet Franc, made under the consultancy work of Michel Rolland, this is another big, rather juicy and opulent style of St.-Emilion that tips the scales at 15.5% natural alcohol. -94 Points (WA)
7669	Château Dassault 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$64.73	$25.00	$35.98	89				A classic hedonistic style of St.-Emilion from famous French aircraft manufacturers, this wine displays oodles of plum and red and black currant notes with sweet cherries and roasted herbs. Soft and racy, the velvety texture cascades over the palate. This is a vin de plaisir and proud of it. -89 Points (WA)
9392	Château Dassault 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$62.59	$20.00	$39.59		90			A soft, plush style, with mulled plum and fig notes up front, followed by subtle tobacco, cocoa, roasted sage and charcoal hints that fill in on the finish. There's sneaky grip too, with a nice twang of iron at the very end. -90 Points (WS)
11560	Château Dassault 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$64.11	$20.00	$41.11	91	92	94		Wonderful ripe fruit with raspberries, blackberries and some eucalyptus. Excellent density and structure on palate with juicy fruit, velvety tannins and good length. Really amazing berry fruit and dense creamy mineral notes. Beautiful already now, but will improve further over the next four years. -94 Points (JS)
13045	Château Dassault 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$56.99	$15.00	$39.74	90	90			This estate has been producing fine wines over recent years. Their most recent effort, the medium-bodied 2011, is a plump, forward, precociously-styled wine with a dark plum/ruby/purple color, a big sweet bouquet of black raspberries, spring flowers and currants, and a stunningly seductive style. Drink it over the next decade. It is a sleeper of the vintage. -90 Points (WA)
19243	Château Dassault 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$69.50	$25.00	$40.75				91	Typical of early-maturing, Merlot-based wines from this vintage, this is rich, swirling with black-berry fruits and generous tannins. The fresh, almost crisp aftertaste is already attractive. Drink from 2019. -91 Points (WE)
10494	Château de Fonbel 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$47.80	$15.00	$30.55	89		91		Made by Ausone's perfectionist owner, Alain Vauthier, Fonbel is a sleeper of the vintage in 2009. Raspberry and black currant notes intermixed with incense, camphor and a note of crushed wet/rock steeliness offer up a complex set of aromatics. That is followed by a dense ruby/purple wine with excellent texture, fruit extract and an overall harmony among its various elements. Drink it over the next decade or more. -89 Points (WA)
10517	Château Destieux 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$87.82	$30.00	$53.32	92+				One of the finest wines ever made by proprietor Christian Dauriac, this big, chunky, fleshy, corpulent St.-Emilion is bursting with blueberry, blackberry and raspberry fruit interwoven with smoky charcoal and barbecue notes. It is full-bodied and unctuously textured, with plenty of weight as well as very impressive concentration and extract. There is no shortage of glycerin (alcohol) and tannin in this powerful St.-Emilion that should evolve for up to two decades. -92+ Points (WA)
10510	Château Faugeres 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$71.07	$25.00	$42.32	93	93		93	Far more accessible is the 2009 Faugeres. Again, cropped at a low 18 hectoliters per hectare, but a different blend of 85% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Franc and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon, this wine boasts 14.5% natural alcohol, and both Stefan von Neipperg and Michel Rolland confer on the consulting. Full-bodied and dark ruby/purple, with a nose of graphite, pen ink, blueberries and black raspberries, the wine is deep, dense and pure, with a broad, savory texture and a long finish with no astringency. Drink this beauty over the next 15-20 years. -93 Points (WA)
12931	Château Faugeres 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$56.99	$15.00	$39.74	90	91	93		A wonderful red for the vintage with plum, berry, chocolate and toasted-oak character. Full body, integrated tannins and a velvety texture. Wow. -93 Points (JS)
10629	Château Figeac Grand Cru B 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$457.96	$130.00	$308.46					A ripe year like 2009 is kind to the Cabernet Sauvignon of Château Figeac. The wine is perfumed with new wood and sweet fruits, delicious black currant flavors giving both ripeness and freshness. The wine has weight and impressive density. A star of the vintage. -96 Points (WE)

Opulent style. Just opening now, but this shows lots of stuffing, even if it does tighten down on the palate. Integrated and fine. Drink or hold. -98 Points (JS)

It is dark, rich, packed with ripe black fruits and sweet tannins. Drink from 2018. -94 Points (WE)
15135	Château Figeac Grand Cru B 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$135.00	$35.00	$94.75	91	93		94	This wine is a success for the vintage with its ripe Cabernet flavors and dark, dense tannins. It is fruity certainly, with a juicy, perfumed background. However, the structure and texture show best—firm and dry, indicating a good potential. This concentrated wine will not be ready to drink before 2024. -94 points (WE)
15203	Château Fleur Cardinale 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$67.00	$20.00	$44.00		90			Stylish and ripe, with flattering raspberry and plum sauce flavors that glide along, enhanced by lively licorice and fruitcake notes. A touch of bramble adds length to the finish. -90 Points (WS)
10489	Château Fombrauge 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	6	$59.56	$20.00	$36.56	92	92			The 2009 Fombrauge has the potential to be the finest wine ever made at this property. Michel Rolland is the consulting oenologist in the vineyard, which sits in the southern sector of St.-Emilion known as St.-Christophe des Bardes. It was picked very late in 2009, and the result is a powerhouse wine with an inky blue/purple color and the smell of pen ink, acacia flowers, blueberries, black raspberries and cassis. The wine hit 15% natural alcohol, which gives it lots of glycerin as well as a full-bodied intensity, while the low yields of 27 hectoliters per hectare have provided a striking level of concentration and length. This is very serious wine from an estate that is on the upswing. It should benefit from 3-5 years of cellaring and keep for two decades. -92 Points (WA)
11602	Château Fombrauge 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$53.94	$20.00	$30.94	91	92	92		This is one of the better, more supple Fombrauge wines to date, with a better integration of toasty oak than I have usually seen at this stage of this wine's development. The grapes were picked late, with the harvest finishing on October 22, and that has given the wine wonderful ripeness and plenty of chocolatey espresso notes intermixed with incense, black cherries and black currants. The oak is subtle, and the wine full-bodied, attractive, deep, round and generous. Drink it over the next 10-12 years. This significant estate in St.-Emilion, with one of the biggest, if not the largest, vineyards in Bordeaux, has produced a wine composed of 80% Merlot, 12% Cabernet Franc and 8% Cabernet Sauvignon. -91 Points (WA)
14073	Château Fombrauge 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$50.28	$20.00	$27.28		90			Intense, dark colour. Concentrated nose intermixing black fruits, stone fruits and pleasant smoky oak. Good grip on the palate which is rich, fleshy, full and nicely mellow supported by a sensation of lingering freshness. A successful offering. -94 Points (Gilbert & Gaillard)
9559	Château Fonroque 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$47.83	$15.00	$30.58					Deep colour with beautiful brilliance. Expressive nose mingling crunchy red and black fruit, refined oak and a mineral dimension. Elegant palate with silky tannins. Fat, fullness, freshness and an ethereal sensation. Great purity here. -92 Points (Gilbert & Gaillard)
11547	Château Fonroque 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$58.26	$20.00	$35.26	89+	89			This biodynamically farmed vineyard from Alain Moueix exhibits sweet red and black currant fruit, some loamy soil undertones, licorice and a distinctive minerality, elegance and purity. It is tightly knit at present, nevertheless, there's a lot to like in this wine and it certainly has the potential to merit an outstanding score after 2-4 years of bottle aging. It should drink well for 15-20 years. -89+ Points (WA)
12835	Château Fonroque 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$49.87	$15.00	$32.62	88	88			An attractive combination of black cherries, black currants, spice box and earth jump from the glass of this dark plum/ruby/purple-tinged wine. Medium-bodied, pure and savory with sweet tannins, this offering from a biodynamically farmed vineyard exhibits good purity and depth. It should age easily for 10-15 years. -88 Points (WA)
10491	Château Franc Mayne 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$75.49	$25.00	$46.74	90	91			This gushes up front with dark fig, blueberry cobbler and steeped black currant fruit, showing just enough racy graphite cut on the back end for balance. Espresso and fig bread notes hang in the background. -91 Points (WS)
15722	Château Franc Mayne 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$65.31	$25.00	$36.56				89	Attractive, ripe and juicy, it has the tannic structure to support the full berry fruits, along with fine acidity. This is for medium-term aging. -89 Points (WE)
7677	Château Grand Mayne 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$49.87	$10.00	$38.37	88	88			Deep colour. Powerful red fruit aromas on the nose, which follow through to the clean, well-structured palate. A medium bodied vintage with full, expressive aromas. -89 Points (Gilbert & Gaillard)
11536	Château Godeau 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$47.82	$15.00	$30.57		90			This sports a very ripe, focused beam of linzer torte and cassis notes, with dark toasted anise, violet and fruitcake showing up on the finish. Fairly extracted, but with the graphite edge to keep the wine delineated. -90 Points (WS)
13064	Château Gracia 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$213.71	$80.00	$121.71	95				One of the few blockbuster wines in this vintage, Gracia's 2011 exhibits an opaque blue/purple color along with gorgeous aromas of graphite, chalk, black currants, blueberries, camphor and a hint of truffles. Full-bodied and rich, with good acidity, this luscious St.-Emilion should drink well in 2-3 years and last for 15. -95 Points (WA)
16698	Château Gracia 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$218.17	$80.00	$126.17	95+				This estate consistently turns out some of the greatest wines of St.-Emilion. Michel Gracia obviously learned a lot from his close friend Alain Vauthier at Ausone. The 2012 Gracia has an opaque bluish/black color and a gorgeous nose of blueberry liqueur intermixed with blackberry, incense, graphite and spice. Medium-bodied and super-concentrated, with well-integrated acidity, tannin and alcohol, this is a big, rich, profound 2012 to drink over the next two decades. Patience might be warranted to sit on it for 4-5 years prior to pulling corks. Anticipated maturity: 2020-2035. Kudos to Michel Gracia! This tips the scales at 14.5% alcohol from a blend of 75% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon cropped at a low yield of 22 hectoliters per hectare. -95+ Points (WA)
15386	Château Gracia 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	6	$165.00	$45.00	$113.25					With licorice, coffee bean and smoky plums, this deep-colored, fleshy wine is soft and approachable, leaving you with lingering, sweet, dark cherries. From a blend of 65% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Franc, and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon, the wine reached 14% alcohol. With low yields of 15 hectoliter per hectare, only 300 cases were produced this year. -93 points (Jeff Leve-Cellar Tracker)
16572	Château Gracia 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$172.99	$45.00	$121.24	91+		92		The 2014 Gracia has a backward bouquet, but I like the delineation of floral violet and iris scents emerging with time with admirable focus. The palate is medium-bodied with a spicy entry, good depth and sinew here with surprising structure on the finish laden with white pepper. It needs a little more persistence, but I think that will come with two or three years of bottle age. This may merit a higher score with bottle age. -91+ Points (WA)
9536	Château Grand Barrail Lamarzelle Figeac 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$44.27	$20.00	$21.27				92	This fleshy red offers fresh flavors of black cherry, toast and graphite, as well as notes of tobacco and anise. This has light, well-integrated tannins and a clean, licorice-scented finish. (WS)
11493	Château Grand Barrail Lamarzelle Figeac 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$38.16	$10.00	$26.66		89			This has a frame of singed mesquite nicely integrated with the core of crushed plum, anise and black cherry fruit. Lingering black tea and incense notes are already emerging on the finish. -89 Points (WS)
12953	Château Grand Barrail Lamarzelle Figeac 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$37.66	$15.00	$20.41					Offers fig, plum and blackberry fruit up front, eventually turning toward a woody edge. 13965	Château Grand Barrail Lamarzelle Figeac 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$38.08	$15.00	$20.83					Owned by the Dourthe family, this vineyard, which has a very attractive hotel and restaurant situated in the middle, has produced a very good 2012. The 2012 is well-made, attractive, round and juicy, with lots of earthy berry fruit, light oak and a moderately long finish. Drink it over the next 8-10 years. (RP)
15384	Château Grand Corbin Despagne 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$45.50	$10.00	$34.00				91	A generous, fruity wine, this has soft, finely integrated tannins. The rich, black currant core is already delicious. -91 Points (WE)
16470	Château Grand Corbin Despagne 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$48.99	$15.00	$31.74	92	90			The 2014 Grand-Corbin-Despagne was impressive from barrel and that continues to be the case now that this Saint Emilion is in bottle. The bouquet is quite sensual with layers of ripe redcurrant and raspberry fruit, well-integrated oak and just a hint of black truffle and smoke emerging with time. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, well-judged acidity, harmonious and focused with bright black cherries and raspberry coulis on the vibrant and persistent finish. Bravo—this is an excellent Grand-Corbin Despagne (but I told you that back in April 2015). -92 Points (WA)
15374	Château La Confession 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$51.95	$10.00	$40.45					One of the excellent estates run by Jean-Philippe Janoueix, La Confession has grown in size and is now nearly 19 acres. Average vine age is 39 years and the 2013, which is one of the better wines of the vintage, is a final blend of 62% Merlot and 38% Cabernet Franc. It achieved 13.7% natural alcohol with only 48% of the crop making it into his top cuvee. A nice dark bluish, plum/ruby with hints of white chocolate, creosote, black currant and cherry fruit, the wine shows beautiful attack and surprising texture and ripeness in the mid-palate. The finish has sweet tannin and the wine has the potential to be outstanding and one of the stars of the vintage. (WA)
16389	Château La Confession 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$55.99	$15.00	$38.74					This attractive La Confession has sweet plummy fruit and juicy cassis flavors. Tannins are polished and ripe with very good length. A well-made wine by Jean-Philippe Janoueix. -90 Points (Jeannie Cho Lee)

7668	Château La Couspaude 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$90.06	$35.00	$49.81	90				A strong sleeper of the vintage, this sexy, hedonistic, modern-styled St.-Emilion has the tell-tale toasty new oak component, which is prominent, but the combination of sweetness, ripeness, and concentration of beautiful black currant and black cherry fruit is a winning one. Deep, medium to full-bodied flavors, with ripe tannin and a long, layered finish make for a complete St.-Emilion to drink over the next 12-15 years. -90 Points (WA)
10513	Château La Couspaude 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$108.29	$35.00	$68.04	93				This opaque purple 2009 exhibits nicely integrated toasty oak/pain grille in addition to cassis, kirsch, raspberries and earthy undertones. Full-bodied, with beautiful integration of acidity, alcohol and tannin, this is a robust, exuberant, somewhat flamboyant style of St.-Emilion that is clearly modern, but quite frankly, delicious. -93 Points (WA)
11585	Château La Couspaude 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$101.77	$35.00	$61.52	92				Rich, full-bodied, with lots of black currant, black cherry and spice, this is an intriguing, rich, medium to full-bodied wine that has light to moderate tannin to shed. It could well turn out to be one of the best La Couspaude's made to date, and easily over the last 15 to 20 years. -92 Points (WA)
15690	Château La Couspaude 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$95.14	$35.00	$54.89				91	A powerhouse of dark tannins, this wine is black in color and dark in taste. It has bitter chocolate flavors, with notes of new wood and intense spice. -91 Points (WE)
16954	Château La Couspaude 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$105.77	$40.00	$59.77		88			This delivers a big blast of plum and boysenberry fruit, which pumps along over supple structure while enticing anise, fruitcake and cobbler notes fill in. Not shy in terms of extraction, but hard to deny the ebullient fruit, even if the structure may not hold up in the long term. Drink now through 2020. -88 Points (WS)
15178	Château La Couspaude 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$84.99	$25.00	$56.24		88			Not shy, pumping out dark plum, cherry and currant notes, inlaid with ganache and well-aged tobacco leaf details. The finish lets the ganache edge take over, giving this a slightly overdone feel. This has pulled together since the barrel tasting and will have some fans. -88 Points (WS)
16398	Château La Couspaude 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$89.99	$25.00	$61.24	88	90			Sports a minty hint along with ebullient boysenberry and raspberry confiture notes. Reveals flashy toast and spice elements, but they are easily absorbed by the fruit. A serious bolt of graphite runs through the finish. This filled out nicely following the barrel tasting. Best from 2020 through 2030. 3,167 cases made. -90 Points (WS)
11722	Château La Dominique 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$90.57	$30.00	$56.07		94			Delivers a gorgeous note of crème de cassis, followed by dark plum, anise, blackberry coulis and blueberry reduction notes. A glorious display of fruit, with well-embedded charcoal and graphite accents that help the finish drive on with authority. Should age wonderfully. A very strong showing for this estate. -94 Points (WS)

This 2011 is rich and concentrated with full, ripe fruit, still young but with great potential. The tannins are soft, cushioned and dense. -92 Points (WE)
14196	Château La Dominique 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$71.76	$25.00	$43.01	93				This is a gorgeous, hedonistic, yet complex La Dominique with an inky purple color, oodles of blue, red and black fruits, sweet tannin, a generous, opulent, full-bodied mouthfeel, and a long finish. This 2012 is sensational and further evidence of the rebound of La Dominique after a few years of mediocrity. It is a sleeper of the vintage to be drunk over the next 15 years. -93 points (WA)
16483	Château La Dominique 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$72.98	$20.00	$49.98		92			Enticing, with loganberry, raspberry and blackberry fruit rushing forth, pushed by a graphite edge and underscored by a mouthwatering anise note on the finish. Shows a lovely tobacco echo at the very end. Best from 2018 through 2028. 5,583 cases made. -92 Points (WS)
8902	Château La Fleur Morange 2007	St. Emilion	375	2007	24	$51.35	$10.00	$39.85	92	90			A more serious effort, the 2007 La Fleur Morange (70% Merlot and 30% Cabernet Franc) is one of the vintage's top wines. Its dense ruby/purple color is accompanied by notes of raspberries, incense, Christmas fruitcake, and spice box. Surprisingly full-bodied (13.5% alcohol) with good density and richness, this is a

9526	Château La Fleur Morange 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	6	$110.92	$35.00	$70.67	94	91			A remarkable achievement, from vines cropped at very low yields, the 2008 La Fleur Morange is also sensational. According to Claude Gros, this wine hit 14% natural alcohol, in a vintage where the average was around 13% to 13.5%. Dense purple in color, it possesses intense blueberry and dark raspberry jam notes intermixed with camphor, crushed rock, and spring flowers. Full-bodied, unctuously textured, long and stunningly pure, this wine should drink well for at least 10-15 years. -94 Points (WA)
10458	Château La Fleur Morange 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	6	$138.66	$50.00	$81.16	96+	91			Even more impressive is the absolutely prodigious 2009 St.-Emilion, the finest wine I have ever tasted from La Fleur Morange. The average age of the vines at this tiny estate is close to 100 years, and this 2009 blend of 70% Merlot and 30% Cabernet Franc came from yields of 25 hectoliters per hectare. The vines sit on the famous iron-rich soils that the French call crasse de fer, and the result is an amazingly opaque purple wine with an extraordinary nose of blackberries, charcoal, graphite and crushed chalk. It is tightly knit, with full-bodied power and relatively elevated tannins. Its noble sweetness and expansiveness as well as its broad, savory finish make this a compelling wine of great quality that should hit its stride in 4-5 years and keep for two decades. Bravo to Claude Gros! -96+ Points (WA)
11677	Château La Fleur Morange 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$121.10	$35.00	$80.85	94+	92			The more traditional cuvee, the 2010 La Fleur Morange is an equal-part blend of Merlot and Cabernet Franc from a tiny, 4.5-acre parcel. This is showing better from bottle than it did from barrel. Remarkably, it has 15.5% natural alcohol, which may be the highest level of natural alcohol of any of the wines from the better estates in Bordeaux. Of course, there is not much of it, since yields were 17 hectoliters per hectare, so there are only about 200+ cases of this wine in the marketplace. Dense purple, with oodles of mulberry, black raspberry and violets, this is a beautiful wine, elegant, but at the same time massively fruity, thick, unctuously textured and long. I am sure some serious tannins are lurking beneath in this extravagantly endowed, sumptuously textured Bordeaux. Drink this wine over the next 15+ years. -94+ Points (WA)

14060	Château La Fleur Morange 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$106.53	$40.00	$60.53	90				The more expensive cuvée, the 2012 La Fleur Morange, is the more serious of the siblings. Broodingly dark ruby/purple, with more cassis, black raspberry, earth and spice, it is medium to full-bodied, ripe, pure, nicely textured and long. This is consistently a top effort and ideal for drinking early on or cellaring for 10-12 years. It is a blend of 70% Merlot and 30% Cabernet Franc from 80-year-old vines cropped at a lowly 25 hectoliters per hectare (14.5% alcohol). -90 Points (WA)

Medium to full body, silky tannins and a flavorful finish. Just a hint of new wood on the finish. Give it time to come together more in the bottle. Try drinking in 2019. -93 Points (JS)
7719	Château La Gomerie 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$151.63	$60.00	$82.63	91	92			100% Merlot. Blackberry and fresh tobacco aromas lead to a full body, with ripe tannins and a mineral, tobacco and berry character. Long and caressing. This is really excellent for the vintage. -92 Points (WS)
9456	Château La Gomerie 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$130.76	$45.00	$79.01					Dark purple ruby. Ripe plums, blackberries and spice. 10562	Château La Tour du Pin 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	6	$85.60	$30.00	$51.10	90				Exhibits a firm, earthy, mineral-laced style. Made from 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc, the ripe black raspberry and blueberry fruit are present, along with some sandy, loamy soil notes. The tannins are sweet, but very elevated, and the wine rich and long but currently somewhat austere and needing bottle age. Give it 2 or 3 years. -90 Points (WA)
11624	Château La Tour du Pin 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	6	$76.32	$25.00	$47.57	93				The 2010 La Tour du Pin is showing incredibly well. A blend of 75% Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc from just over 17 acres, this wine is a sleeper of the vintage. It offers up loads of blueberry, black raspberry and boysenberry fruit, stunning opulence, freshness and precision, despite its flesh and fat. Pure, fragrant and -open for business,- so to speak, this is a gorgeous wine to drink over the next 10-15 years. -93 Points (WA)
12955	Château La Tour du Pin 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	6	$66.14	$20.00	$43.14					Good damson plum and black cherry fruit, with a light sanguine edge threading the finish. (WS)
14586	Château Larcis Ducasse 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	6	$276.46	$100.00	$161.46	98				The wine boasts 14.6% natural alcohol and is a final blend of roughly three-fourths Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc, cropped at a ridiculously low 19 hectoliters per hectare. Notes of licorice, garrigue, incense, smoked meats, espresso, creme de cassis and blackberry liqueur jump from the glass of this unbelievably intense wine. Remarkably full, with compelling freshness and precision, this is a fabulous effort in 2010. It will probably close down over the next several years, and not re-emerge for at least a decade, something that often happens with the bigger, richer, more muscular St.-Emilions from the limestone hillsides and plateaux. This is one of the superstars of the vintage and a profound wine. -98 Points (WA)
13067	Château Larcis Ducasse 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$97.95	$30.00	$63.45	90	91	93		A wine with a beautiful concentration of fruit and depth. Full body with fully integrated tannins and a long, long finish. A touch of decadence. Superb for the vintage. -93 Points (JS)
14201	Château Larcis Ducasse 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$107.71	$40.00	$61.71	95	93	95		This great terroir, long owned by the Gratiot family, has come to life under the inspired winemaking of Nicolas Thienpont and Stéphane Derenoncourt. Some recent vintages have been legendary efforts, especially 2005, 2008, 2009 and 2010. The 2012 (83% Merlot, 17% Cabernet Franc) is right in the competition, with an inky, opaque, bluish/purple color, gorgeously sweet, rich nose of black raspberries, black cherries and currants, and licorice. The wine hits the palate with a full-bodied, thunderous effect. This blend tips the scales at 14.5% alcohol, which is indicative of its fabulously exposed vineyard on a full, steep limestone slope with a primarily southern exposure. This is full-bodied, ripe and one of the great stars of the vintage – again. The wine has full-bodied texture, gorgeous purity, richness and length. Drink it over the next 20 years. -95 Points (WA)
15133	Château Larcis Ducasse 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$89.99	$30.00	$55.49		91			Solidly built, with a core of plum and blackberry sauce flavors, backed by a licorice root note that adds textural complexity while hints of tobacco and warm pain d'épices add aromatic nuances through the finish. On the hedonistic side of the spectrum and very well done. -91 Points (WS)
16474	Château Larcis Ducasse 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$99.99	$25.00	$71.24	92	93			This sports some dark fig and boysenberry confiture fruit, laced with a mulling spice hint. Waves of tobacco start to fill in on the back end before the fruit reemerges with a purer edge. A substantial chalky spine pulls everything together. Best from 2022 through 2032. 2,375 cases made. -93 Points (WS)
16691	Château Larmande 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$43.99	$10.00	$32.49	89				The 2014 Larmande has a broody nose of black and red berry fruit; there are touches of leather and sandalwood emerging with time and imparting complexity and personality. The palate is medium-bodied with quite angular tannin. There is a keen thread of acidity with just a touch of sour cherry towards the pastille-like finish. It might lack a little length, but I appreciate the tension and energy in this Saint Emilion. -89 Points (WA)
7722	Château Laroze 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$52.41	$20.00	$29.41					Beautiful dark hue. The nose is muted and strangely dominated by oak. After swirling, pleasant ripe red fruit unfurls. On the palate, a well-structured, powerful, tightly-wound wine belying its age. Reveals a real propensity for ageing. -90 Points (Gilbert & Gaillard)
12845	Château Lusseau 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$42.74	$10.00	$31.24					Vibrant dark berries with hint of violets. Rich, full and intense with generous tannins. Herbs and savoury flavours with some minerality. Well made and more restrained than the wines in Perse's portfolio. Made by the technical director of Pavie. -88 Points (Jeannie Cho Lee)
16595	Château Magrez Fombrauge Blanc 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$39.99	$10.00	$28.49			92		Aromas of aniseed, dried lemons and lemon grass follow through to a full body, a tight and intense structure and a long and beautiful finish. 11703	Château Magrez Fombrauge 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	6	$253.41	$80.00	$161.41	95				Dense purple, with notes of blackberry, white chocolate, mulberry and toasty oak, this is a full-bodied, massive, rich, thick and unctuously textured wine with outstanding purity, richness and headiness. Of course, there's always criticism that wines like this don't age, but I own the 2000, and it is still an infant at 13 years of age, so I don't think that's an issue. This wine needs a good 5-6 years of cellaring and should keep for 20-25 years at the minimum. -95 Points (WA)
16596	Château Magrez Fombrauge 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$204.99	$60.00	$135.99	90	90			Frankly toasted, delivering a hefty dose of warm ganache and melted black licorice notes around the core of warmed fig and blackberry compote flavors, this still shows some energy, with lively tobacco and singed apple wood streaks on the finish. Should stretch out with modest cellaring. Best from 2018 through 2024. 300 cases made. -90 Points (WS)
7577	Château Monbousquet 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$91.08	$35.00	$50.83	92				A blend of 60% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Franc, and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon, the 2006 possesses a dense ruby/purple color as well as a sweet perfume of espresso roast, damp earth, new oak, black cherries, and black currants. Medium to full-bodied with exceptional purity, surprising intensity, good texture, and sweet tannin in the finish, this unfiltered cuvee should drink well for 12-15 years. The residence and home estate of Chantal and Gerard Perse has once again turned in a serious effort. From sandy soils that have been largely dismissed as a good source for high quality wine production, Monbousquet, through extraordinary viticultural work, and doing everything right in the cellar, continues to turn out one of Bordeaux's finer wines. -92 Points (WA)

It reached 14% natural alcohol, no doubt because of the extremely late harvest. A deep purple color is accompanied by massive notes of blackberries, incense, fruitcake, camphor and toasty oak intermixed with a crushed chalk-like minerality (a hallmark of this vineyard). The wine has softened considerably in bottle, and while it seems more structured than the 2010, it reveals a degree of accessibility. Anticipated maturity: 2016-2035. -94+ Points (WA)
12223	Château Pavie-Decesse 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	6	$365.35	$130.00	$215.85	96				A Blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc, with 14.5% natural alcohol, the higher percentage of Merlot in this wine than in the Pavie gives it a stunning opulence, thickness and luxuriousness. Opaque purple, with notes of mulberry and kirsch liqueur leaning toward blacker fruits, subtle smoked meats and some lead pencil and vanillin, this is another brawny, full-bodied, yet remarkably precise and fresh style of wine despite its sensational extract and power. Give it 5-6 years of cellaring and drink it over the following 30-40 years. -96 Points (WA)
13441	Château Pavie-Decesse 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	6	$233.05	$70.00	$152.55	94				This well-known estate situated on the limestone hillside above Pavie is produced from a blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc. Another brilliant offering from the Perse family, the dense opaque purple-colored 2011 reveals plenty of floral notes intermixed with super-concentrated cassis and kirsch. The chalky limestone soils provide minerality to this full-bodied, powerful, concentrated St.-Emilion. Some tannins are noticeable, but they are sweet. This 2011 should be drinkable in 3-4 years and last for 15-20. -94 Points (WA)
15054	Château Pavie-Decesse 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	6	$199.00	$50.00	$141.50	92	91			The 2013 Pavie-Decesse was one of my favorite wines from Gérard Perse when I tasted his range from barrel and it seems to be fulfilling that initial promise. It has a charming bouquet with lively redcurrant jam, strawberry and wild hedgerow aromas that are well defined and perfumed, almost floral in style. The palate is well balanced with sweet tannin on the entry, quite harmonious in the mouth, fleshier than many of its peers with a fresh, candied orange peel and spice box finish that is a treat. Enjoy this lovely Saint Emilion over the next decade. -92 Points (WA)
14975	Château Pavie Grand Cru A 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$425.00	$100.00	$310.00		93			This has power but offers a greater display of purity overall, as the dense core of raspberry, cherry and plum preserves glides rather than rumbles, carried by a sleek structure before letting a fine chalky minerality linger on the finish. Shows length and depth, and should be among the longer-lived wines of the vintage. -93 Points (WS)
7720	Château Quinault L'Enclos 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$76.32	$30.00	$41.82	90				The 2006 Quinault L'Enclos exhibits the elegant style that Raynaud has achieved in every vintage over the last decade. Sweet black raspberry and currant fruit along with hints of spring flowers and smoky oak are followed by a round, gentle, restrained wine revealing outstanding purity, medium body, and a fine finish. It is a strong effort for the vintage. -90 Points (WA)
8344	Château Quinault L'Enclos 2007	St. Emilion	750	2007	12	$61.06	$15.00	$43.81					Aromas of dark fruits and sweet tobacco lead to a medium body, with chewy tannins and a fruity, mineral aftertaste. A little austere, but pleasant enough. Should soften with bottle age. -90 Points (WA)
9432	Château Quinault L'Enclos 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$45.80	$5.00	$40.05		91			This solid red offers ripe, dark flavors of plum pudding, dark chocolate and iron. The tannins are firm and grippy, but let spice and smoke notes emerge on the finish. Shows good depth and promise. -91 Points (WS)
11662	Château Quinault L'Enclos 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$61.06	$20.00	$38.06	91	90			This property have turned out a finesse-styled 2010 with loads of blueberry and raspberry fruit as well as hints of pomegranate, crushed rock and damp earth. A blend of 70% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon, it is medium-bodied and stylish, not a blockbuster by any means, but a wine of finesse to drink over the next 10-12 years. -91 Points (WA)
16655	Château Quinault L'Enclos 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$56.99	$15.00	$39.74	90	89			The 2014 Quinault L'Enclos, which was the first vintage to utilize larger 500-liter barrels and also the first to utilize the newly planted Cabernet Sauvignon to lend structure. Now in bottle, this Saint Emilion has an attractive bouquet with brambly red berry fruit, predominantly raspberry preserve and a touch of loganberries. The oak here is neatly folded into the fruit. The palate is medium-bodied with soft tannin on the entry. Although the Cabernet Sauvignon does lend more backbone, I was quite surprised how approachable this Quinault L'Enclos is, partly because of the growing season. It is certainly harmonious, without enormous depth or grip, the dash of black pepper on the finish a pleasing way to finish off. -90 Points (WA)
16500	Le Dragon de Quintus 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$52.99	$15.00	$35.74	88			91	Ripe Merlot gives this wine its richness and concentration. It is filled with black fruits, hints of the wood aging and with tannins cushioned by the fruit. Acidity shows strongly at the end, leaving a bright aftertaste. Drink from 2020. -91 Points (WE)
16452	Château Quintus 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$192.99	$60.00	$123.99	90	91		94	This rich wine has a good proportion (31%) of Cabernet Franc to give it a perfumed structured character. It is dense and with considerable tannins at this stage. By contrast, the fruit has enormous potential with rich blackberry and black-plum flavors. This chateau has made a considerable stride in this vintage. Drink from 2022. -94 Points (WE)
7709	Château Rol Valentin 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$80.39	$30.00	$45.89		90			Offers white truffle, blackberry and cherry on the nose. Medium-bodied, with round, silky tannins and a fine, delicious finish. -90 Points (WS)
9330	Château Rol Valentin 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$64.11	$25.00	$35.36		90	93		Wonderful aromas of raw meat, blueberries and cherries. Full body, with a solid core of fruit and dense polished tannins. Long and beautiful. It's all in reserve. Give it four to five years. This is really structured for the year. Extremely well done! -93 Points (JS)
10471	Château Rol Valentin 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$74.17	$25.00	$45.42		93			Licorice and tar, with hints of ripe berry. Full-bodied, with a solid core of ripe fruit and dense tannins. Yet it's all in near-perfect harmony. This has a new owner and it's even better. -93 Points (WS)
11671	Château Rol Valentin 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$72.25	$25.00	$43.50	92				A strong showing from this blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc that hit 14.7% natural alcohol, the 2010 Rol Valentin exhibits oodles of sweet black currant and black raspberry fruit along with some toasty oak and a note of charcoal embers in a full-bodied, opulent, showy, even flamboyant style that seems to beg comparison to 2009. This wine should drink beautifully for 10-15 years. -92 Points (WA)
16512	Château Rol Valentin 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$64.99	$20.00	$41.99	89	90			Enticing, with flavors of warm plum cake, melted black licorice and fig paste mixed together, wrapped in a slightly ambitious layer of toast. Delivers solid hedonism overall. Drink now through 2026. 2,000 cases made. -90 Points (WS)
15242	Château Soutard 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$59.95	$20.00	$36.95				93	Firmly tannic, this wine also has some richness, with sweet berry fruits that are cut by acidity. The structure and ripe fruits promise good aging potential. -93 Points (WE)
16657	Château Soutard 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$69.99	$20.00	$46.99	89				Firmly tannic and structured, this wine also has a fine swathe of ripe fruit character, and the balance is coming as these elements coalesce. Hints of chocolate add richness to the close and suggest a wine that is going to mature successfully. (WE)
10504	Mondot 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$79.70	$25.00	$50.95		91			Very dark, with strong pastis-soaked blackberry and roasted plum notes leading the way, with layers of sweet spice, mocha and tobacco filling in on the finish. Rather lush and perhaps a touch too roasted in style for some folks, with enough just grip to keep it going. -91 Points (WS)

7605	Château Troplong Mondot Grand Cru B 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$243.23	$100.00	$128.23	93			94	Tasted blind as a vintage comparison at the Valandraud vertical, the 2006 Troplong-Mondot is deep in color with minimal ageing on the rim. The bouquet is rich and generous with mulberry, Hoi Sin, orange blossom and melted tar aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with grainy tannin, generous black pepper and graphite notes cutting through the dense black fruit, leading to an engaging, tensile, graphite and tobacco-driven finish that exerts both body and length. It still has that slight stockiness, but that is something I like. I have always found much to admire in this vintage of Troplong-Mondot and it continues to give so much pleasure. Tasted December 2016. -93 points (WA)
11793	Château Troplong Mondot Grand Cru B 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$290.03	$100.00	$175.03	99				Inky, bluish/black/purple, with notes of spring flowers, licorice, camphor, graphite, and a boatload of blueberry, black raspberry and blackberry fruit, this is a powerful, full-bodied Troplong Mondot. All the building components of acidity, tannin, wood and alcohol are judiciously and impressively integrated. It is a blend of 90% Merlot and the rest equal parts Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc made by Christine Valette and her husband Xavier Pariente with the consultancy help of Michel Rolland. I-m not sure what the heady alcohol level is in Troplong Mondot in 2010 (it certainly must be in the 15%+ range), but it is well-concealed behind the extravagant, richness, full-bodied power, and pure nobility of this majestic wine. Forget this for 5-7 years and drink it over the following three decades. -99 Points (WA)
15686	Château Troplong Mondot Grand Cru B 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$197.03	$70.00	$116.53	95				The brilliant 2011 Troplong Mondot is one of the superstars of the vintage. The final blend was 89% Merlot, 9% Cabernet Sauvignon and 2% Cabernet Franc, and the wine tips the scales at 14.5% alcohol. Its opaque blue/purple, nearly black color is followed by aromas of blueberry liqueur interwoven with black raspberries, blackberries, licorice, camphor and forest floor. Among the most complete wines of the vintage, with no hollowness, astringency or herbaceousness, this is a tour de force in a challenging vintage. Some tannins are noticeable, but this 2011 is already approachable and should provide delicious, complex drinking over the next two decades. Bravo! -95 Points (WA)
15393	Château Troplong Mondot Grand Cru B 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$145.00	$35.00	$104.75				93	True to the estate's signature style, this is a powerful, luscious wine. It's ripe with plum and berry fruits, layered with dark, firm tannins. There is a juicy element as well as black-coffee flavors from the enthusiastic use of wood. -93 Points (WE)
16487	Château Troplong Mondot Grand Cru B 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$146.99	$30.00	$112.49	94	94			The 2014 Troplong-Mondot performed to my expectation now that the wine is in bottle. It has a refined bouquet with black cherries, raspberry preserve and mineral scents that gain intensity in the glass, but never get carried away. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, tensile in the mouth but surprisingly linear and conservative, at least in the first half. It is fresh and precise, then delivers the weight and concentration as it fans out on the finish, a residue of white pepper tingling on the aftertaste. This is a delicious Troplong Mondot that should age with style and grace. -94 Points (WA)
6430	La Mondotte Grand Cru B 2005	St. Emilion	750	2005	6	$449.19	$50.00	$391.69	99	97			From the tiny luxury jewel of the Neipperg family, the 2005 La Mondotte is composed of 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc from a fabulous terroir. Super-rich and dense purple in color, it represents a concentrated essence in both its aromatic and flavor profile of blackcurrant, black cherry, earth and spice. Full-bodied, pure, and again, possessing sweet, sweet tannin and a tremendously deep, full, layered personality. This is another great example of La Mondotte, which should drink well for 30-40 years. June 2015 -99 Points (WA)
10678	La Mondotte Grand Cru B 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	6	$532.59	$50.00	$475.09	100				Perfect, the 2009 La Mondotte boasts an inky/black/purple color as well as sumptuous notes of incense, graphite, licorice, black cherries, blackberries, cedar and forest floor. It is extraordinarily thick and voluptuous with a cool climate minerality that gives the wine an uplift and freshness that is surprising in view of its massive fruit level and high extract. The tannins are abundant, but sweet and well-integrated, as are the acidity, alcohol and wood components. An infant at present, this 2009 requires 6-8 years of cellaring and should keep for three decades. This fabulous terroir has been fully exploited by proprietor Stefan von Neipperg and his consulting oenologist, Stephane Derenoncourt, since the debut vintage of 1996. Yields of 18 hectoliters per hectare were ridiculously low in 2009 and the blend is dominated by Merlot (80%) combined with 20% Cabernet Franc. -100 Points (WA)
11798	La Mondotte Grand Cru B 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$656.41	$200.00	$426.41	99				The 2010, a blend of 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc cropped at 20 hectoliters per hectare, is showing incredibly well, combining elegance, extraordinary creme de cassis and kirsch-like fruit, and notes of licorice, incense and vanillin in a fragrant, full-bodied, massively endowed style that is neither heavy nor overbearing. The freshness and overall precision of this wine reminds me stylistically of the brilliant 1998 as well as the 2000. This wine normally drinks well reasonably young, but I suspect the 2010 is going to require 5-7 years of cellaring and keep for 25-30+ years. -99 Points (WA)
14082	La Mondotte Grand Cru B 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	6	$314.22	$120.00	$176.22	95	94			From the luxury, 12-acre boutique outpost of the Neipperg family, the 2012 La Mondotte (generally 85% Merlot and 15% Cabernet Franc) has an inky/purple color, sweet mulberry, black cherry and cassis note, stunning purity and full-bodied texture. The wine's opulence and voluptuous character compare to its greatest vintages, such as 1998, 2000, 2005, 2009 and 2010. Its great terroir (clay and limestone soils) shines through with a stunning effort in the vintage. Drink it over the next 10-15 years. -95 Points (WA)
15407	La Mondotte Grand Cru B 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	6	$274.00	$70.00	$193.50				93	This sports exotic singed wood, spice and cocoa aromas followed by a hefty core of boysenberry and blackberry confiture flavors. There's ample brambly grip on the long, spice-infused finish. Exhibits good gusto, but there's also a seriously impressive core of pure fruit buried here. -93 Points (WS)
16565	La Mondotte Grand Cru B 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$299.99	$80.00	$207.99	93+	96			A stunningly pure expression of currant, raspberry and plum fruit that stretches out over a live wire of minerality, showing remarkable definition and length. This hums as effortlessly as a tuning fork, with perfect pitch. Best from 2020 through 2040. 708 cases made. -96 Points (WS)
15673/15822	Château Trotte Vieille Grand Cru B 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$246.54	$90.00	$143.04				96	An extracted wine, showing bitter chocolate as much as fruit. There is a core of dark tannins, very firm, with licorice, wood and a tight texture. Often Trottevieille shows this austerity when young, and this 2010 is no exception. It will develop slowly into a serious and concentrated wine. -93 Points (WE)
15703	Château Trotte Vieille Grand Cru B 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	6	$204.97	$90.00	$101.47				93	Dark tannins dominate in this wine that has an austere side. The fruit under this dark structure is full of juicy black fruit flavors. The combination of the powerful texture and the ripe fruit has produced one of the best vintages from this chateau for many years. -93 Points (WE)

The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, fine acidity and a gentle, caressing finish that is silky smooth. This is a very refined Trottevieille, one that is far less rustic than in the past, the persistence on the finish suggesting that it should age in consummate style. This is a classy offering from the Castèja family. -92 Points (WA)
7646	Château Valandraud Grand Cru B 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$406.06	$150.00	$233.56	91	92			Tasted blind at the Valandraud vertical at the property, the 2006 Valandraud was the first of two vintages that were 100% Merlot (the other being 2007). It was matured in 100% new oak for 21 months. It has a deep garnet core with just a little turbidity. The bouquet is very refined, quite forward for a 2006 with raspberry coulis, crushed strawberry, dried honey and violet scents that unfurl in the glass. That cough candy signature appears only after a few minutes aeration. The palate is medium-bodied with supple ripe red berry fruit. It is not as concentrated as the 2006 Troplong Mondot poured alongside, but there are plenty of attractive, saline black fruit infused with tobacco and spice box, with just a mellow and harmonious finish. Tasted December 2016. -91 points (WA)
8627	Château Valandraud Grand Cru B 2007	St. Emilion	750	2007	12	$305.31	$70.00	$224.81	92				Tasted blind at the Valandraud vertical at the property, the 2007 Valandraud was a big surprise given that this is supposed to be an off-vintage. It has a rounded and opulent bouquet, especially considering the growing season, with quite precocious kirsch, mulberry and cassis scents interlaced with cigar box and smoke aromas. You ask yourself whether there is any Cabernet Franc here and the answer is none - the 2007 is 100% Merlot. The palate is medium-bodied with fine delineation, precise and elegant with wild strawberry and raspberry fruit that is seamlessly integrated with the oak. Considering this is a 2007, this is just a beautifully crafted wine that is probably à point, though shows absolutely no sign of any decline. Tasted December 2016. -92 Points (WA)
14036	Château Valandraud Grand Cru B 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$245.78	$90.00	$142.28	95	94		93	Tasted blind at the Valandraud vertical at the property, the 2012 Valandraud instantly demonstrated the wide gap in quality between itself and the previous vintage. It is a blend of 88% Merlot and 12% Cabernet Franc matured for 28 months in 100% new oak. It has a primal and concentrated bouquet with intense blackberry, bilberry and graphite aromas that gain intensity in the glass, and yet remain "strict" and linear. The palate is medium-bodied with brittle tannin that impart a chalky texture. There is plenty of clean and crisp blackberry and raspberry fruit here, pencil lead and a touch of chalk towards the precise and vivid finish. The energy is palpable in this Saint Emilion, a quite stupendous wine from Jean-Luc and Murielle that must stand as one of the best on the Right Bank. This comes strongly recommended, although it still needs plenty of time. Tasted December 2016. -95 Points (WA)
19247	Château Valandraud Grand Cru B 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$269.00	$50.00	$211.50		91		94	This wine is rich with jammy fruits and ripe acidity. Firm tannins are only just making a mark on the sweet, fleshy fruitiness. It revels in its concentrated fruit and in the dark tannins that are still at the back. This wine will certainly age, dense while always fresh and juicy at the end. Drink from 2022. -94 Points (WE)
19248	Château Valandraud Grand Cru B 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	6	$275.00	$60.00	$206.00	94	95	96	96	Here's an impressive wine that is so ripe and with great structure. It is a major wine with a dark complex texture and the finest acidity. The wine is very complete, all the elements in place from the black fruits to the tannins to the hints of wood aging. Now at the top of the tree in Saint-Emilion's classification, the wine will take years to mature. Drink from 2027. -96 Points (WE)
14513	Château Villemaurine 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$65.00	$10.00	$53.50					Vibrant red. On the nose, complex tones blending spice, graphite and mineral notes. On the palate, very melted and elegant. After a power-driven entry, fruit takes more of a lead role and provides a pleasant finish. A sterling wine with great promise for the future. -91 Points (Gilbert & Gaillard)
11718	Château Villemaurine 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$65.00	$10.00	$53.50	91+				The wine is tannic, rich and full-bodied, with impressive purity, loads of black raspberry, black currant, graphite and smoky barbecue notes intermixed with some toasty oak and forest floor. Rich and impressive, but needing cellar time, this wine begs for 4-5 years of bottle age and should drink well for 25-30 years. The resurrection of this chateau is apparent with the 2010 Villemaurine. Up to this point, this was always one of the most disappointing wines in St.-Emilion, but new ownership, new cellars and a new commitment to quality have given this property a new lease on life. It is beautifully situated high on the limestone plateau just outside the walls of St.-Emilion and is a very small property of only 17.5 acres. In 2010, yields were cut to 29 hectoliters per hectare and the final blend was 95% Merlot and 5% Cabernet Franc that hit 14.5% natural alcohol. -91+ Points (WA)
15715	Château Villemaurine 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$76.72	$25.00	$47.97	92				Over the last four or five years, this property has risen from one of the most disappointing grand cru classes of St.-Emilion to one of the best. The strong, positive, authoritative 2011 exhibits an opaque blue/purple color along with copious aromas of blueberries, black raspberries, graphite and crushed chalk. It offers an attractive attack, a solidly rich mid-palate and a light to moderately tannic finish. One of the more complete wines to be found in this vintage, this medium-bodied wine will benefit from 2-3 years of cellaring, and should drink well over the following 15 years. It is a sleeper of the vintage. -92 points (WA)
14178	Château Villemaurine 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$72.44	$25.00	$43.69				92	Twenty years ago, this used to be one of my candidates for the worst wine from a top terroir in St.-Emilion. Things have changed incredibly since the acquisition of this property by Justin Onclin. The terroir is fabulously situated just adjacent to the walls of this medieval village, and the wine has gone from strength-to-strength. The 2012 has a dense purple color, a rocky and chalky minerality, medium to full body, and is long, rich and intense, elegant yet noble. Consumers have to be pleased that this long-time underachiever has finally raised its game under the new ownership. This is a property to seek out in St.-Emilion. Drink this 2012 over the next 15-20 years. -92 Points (WA)
19194	Château Villemaurine 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$69.00	$15.00	$51.75					Direct, with cherry compote and singed-vanilla notes laced up with red licorice. Open-knit finish. Drink now. (WS)
16593	Château Villemaurine 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$66.99	$20.00	$43.99	91				The 2014 Villemaurine did not really impress in barrel, although I was certainly more taken with this Saint Emilion now that it is in bottle. Here, it has a tightly wound bouquet with irony black fruit, mineral scents turning more floral with time. The palate is medium-bodied with a silky, almost Pinot Noir-like entry in terms of texture. Pretty red cherries mixed with kirsch and sorbet orange, finishing with a precise, understated finish that lingers nicely in the mouth. It is the detail that has improved so much in this wine, hence the upswing in more score. Tasted twice with consistent notes. -91 Points (WA)
11702	Clos de l'Oratoire 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$80.39	$20.00	$57.39	94	94			It displays loads of Christmas fruitcake, licorice, incense, black cherry and black currant liqueur with some smoky barbecue notes as well as hints of coffee bean and chocolate. Sexy, full-throttle and impossible to resist already, it should continue to drink well for 15 or more years, and I don't anticipate this particular wine closing down. -94 Points (WA)
16787	Clos de l'Oratoire 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$76.22	$30.00	$41.72	90+	91	90		Offers a bright, brisk core of damson plum, bitter cherry and red currant, with racy apple wood and iron notes driving the finish. Not superdense, but shows serious definition and length. -91 Points (WS)

14059	Clos de l'Oratoire 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$66.30	$25.00	$37.55	94				One of the von Neipperg estates, the 2012 Clos de l'Oratoire is an undeniable success story. Dense ruby/purple, with plenty of crème de cassis, roasted coffee, licorice and spice, full-bodied, opulent and sexy, it is a hedonist's dream wine. Pure and long, it has a great finish and terrific palate presence. Drink it over the next 12-15 years. Yields were exceptionally small in 2012 – 25 hectoliters per hectare. -94 Points (WA)
16566	Clos de l'Oratoire 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$61.99	$20.00	$38.99	91	92	93		This is already really delicious. The black-fruit aromas are really ripe, but there's no hint of jammy stuff. Tastes simultaneously juicy and creamy, and the tannins are so graceful: The wine glides across the palate. If it were more subtle, the score would go even higher. -93 Points (JS)
16876	Clos de l'Oratoire 2014	St. Emilion	1500	2014	6	$121.99	$35.00	$81.74
9079	Clos des Jacobins 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$101.45	$40.00	$55.45	90	92			Beautiful aromas of crushed blackberry and raspberry, with hints of roasted hazelnut. Full-bodied, with a velvety tannin texture and loads of fruit and flavor. Very long. Impressive for the vintage. -92 Points (WS)
16578	Clos des Jacobins 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$51.98	$15.00	$34.73				91	80% Merlot, 18% Cabernet Franc, 2% Cabernet Sauvignon. Expressive and aromatic bouquet of attractive red fruits and hint of florality. Vibrant dark fruity palate, smooth tannins and lovely spicy notes on long menthol finish. -95 Points (Decanter World Wine Awards 2017)
9561	Clos Fourtet Grand Cru B 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$91.14	$30.00	$56.64	92	90		92	A strong effort, the 2008 was made from tiny yields of 28.5 hectoliters per hectare, and attained 14% natural alcohol. It reveals sweet licorice, black currant and blackberry fruit notes intermixed with truffle and asphalt characteristics in its pure, rich, opulent, full-bodied personality. One of the finest St.-Emilions of the vintage, it is far more accessible than the 2010 and should continue to drink well for 15-20 years. -92 points (WA)
11669	Clos Fourtet Grand Cru B 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$202.52	$60.00	$133.52	98				The wine has an opaque blue/black color and abundant notes of forest floor, spring flowers, black raspberry and blueberry liqueur in the aromatics along with hints of espresso and white chocolate. The wine is dense, full, rich, unctuously textured and very full-bodied, with its extravagant glycerin, fruit and extract covering the wine's somewhat tannic structure. This is a bigger, more restrained and structured wine than the outrageously flamboyant and prodigious 2009. Give it 5-8 years of cellaring and drink it over the following 30-40 years. This property has been on fire, qualitatively speaking, for well over a decade. Another compelling effort from the Cuvelier family, the 2010 Clos Fourtet is a blend of 87% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Sauvignon and 3% Cabernet Franc that came in at 14.5% alcohol. Yields were modest at 31 hectoliters per hectare. The harvest was late, starting at the very end of September and not finishing until the beginning of the third week of October. -98 Points (WA)
13003	Clos Fourtet Grand Cru B 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$137.38	$35.00	$97.13	93	93		95	Clos Fourtet is a continuing success. This 2011 is both rich and seriously structured. Ripe, with a mineral character, it starts firm and then shows generous blackberry fruits. Still young, it should not be drunk before 2018. -95 Points (WE)
15363	Clos Fourtet Grand Cru B 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$125.00	$35.00	$84.75		92		93	The renaissance of Clos Fourtet continues, even in this difficult vintage. This wine has great fruit, layering black currant with berries. It's a precise wine, pointing up the structured tannins while leaving room for a juicy, fruity aftertaste. -93 Points (WE)
16552	Clos Fourtet Grand Cru B 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$146.99	$45.00	$95.24	94	95		93	A sleek, lean cat, with distilled currant and raspberry fruit that races from start to finish, maintaining tension throughout thanks to a riveting chalky spine. A light floral hint hangs in the background. Should develop into a perfumy beauty with time. Best from 2022 through 2035. -95 Points (WS)
11604	Clos La Madeleine 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$67.16	$25.00	$38.41		92			Very sleek, with a lovely beam of cassis, blackberry and plum, this red has a solid but silky and seamless structure and a long, incense- and anise-filled finish that glides along wonderfully. A sleeper worth watching in the next few vintages. -92 Points (WS)
12764	Clos La Madeleine 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$58.00	$20.00	$35.00		89			Delivers a hefty ganache and toasted mesquite frame, with a core of dark plum, fig and blackberry fruit. The thick-textured, toasty finish is a touch heavy-handed, but the ample core of fruit is worth gambling on. Best from 2015 through 2021. 750 cases made. -89 Points (WS)
16499	Clos La Madeleine 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$55.99	$15.00	$38.74	89				The 2014 Clos la Madeleine has retained that plush bouquet that I remarked upon when I tasted the wine from barrel. It doles out some really quite lovely redcurrant, crushed strawberry, blood orange and light spicebox notes, the oak neatly enmeshed. The palate is medium-bodied with light tannin. To be honest, the palate has not quite kept up with the nose and is missing some depth. As a consequence, it feels quite linear and correct, whereas I would have been seeking a bit more gusto and vigor. Not a bad Saint Emilion for sure. -89 Points (WA)
9563	Clos St. Martin 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$96.74	$30.00	$62.24	93+				A stronger effort than its 2010 sibling, the 2008's pure, chalky/limestone character gives it an unmistakable liqueur of mineral-like quality intermixed with deep raspberry and black cherry fruit, medium to full body and superb ripeness, depth and purity. This beautiful wine should be consumed over the next 15 years. -93+ Points (WA)
12798	Château Teyssier 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$31.99	$10.00	$20.49				89	This is a perfumed, aromatic wine with great acidity and fresh black fruits. The wine is already softening with a good fruity character, fresh and bright at the end. -89 Points (WE)
11452	Le Carre 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$93.93	$35.00	$53.68		90		92	From a small, single-vineyard plot of 3.5 acres, this shows intense fruit, very aromatic in character. Its concentration is immense, dark black fruits vying with spice, tar and sweet plum pudding flavors. The Cabernet Franc shows through well here, giving a perfumed finish. -92 Points (WE)
11443	Le Carre 2007	St. Emilion	750	2007	12	$82.28	$30.00	$47.78	90				An outstanding effort for the vintage, this 2007 exhibits a perfumed personality with lots of blue, red, and black fruits intermixed with graphite and subtle oak. Surprisingly rich with silky tannins and a long, heady, fleshy finish, it should drink well for 10-12 years. -90 points (WA)
11444	Le Carre 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$93.89	$35.00	$53.64	89+			92	Big and chunky, packed with opulent fruit, primarily ripe black plums and raisins. It is defiantly rich, shot through with acidity and dry tannins for aging. -92 Points (WE)
10667	Le Carre 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$145.51	$50.00	$88.01	97				Achieving nearly 15% natural alcohol (one of the highest of the Jonathan Maltus St. Emilion estates), this blend of approximately 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc is from vineyards that sit on limestone soils near Clos Fourtet, an area that performed brilliantly in 2009. Inky purple, with notes of graphite, vanillin, blackberry and cassis as well as crushed rock and floral notes, the wine has breathtaking extravagance and a luxuriant fruit quality that simply has to be tasted to be believed. Phenomenally rich, full-bodied, and brilliantly poised and well-balanced, this is a tour de force in winemaking and a colossal Le Carre, the finest Jonathan Maltus has yet produced. -97 Points (WA)
11659	Le Carre 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$137.38	$45.00	$85.63	95			93	Deep, chalky notes intermixed with black fruits, camphor, and an almost ethereal floral note make for a full-bodied wine that has slightly more austerity than Laforge or Teyssier (two other wines from the same team), but considerable style and nobility. In addition, it is substantial, powerful and capable of 20 years of longevity. -95 Points (WA)
13039	Le Carre 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$122.12	$40.00	$76.12	91	92		92	This parcel, owned by Jonathan Maltus, was carved out of a premier grand cru classe, and the terroir consists of a thin layer of clay over compacted white limestone. The 2011 Le Carre (85% Merlot and 15% Cabernet Franc) reveals good minerality interwoven with blueberry liqueur, white flower and chalk dust characteristics in its medium to full-bodied, pure, rich, concentrated personality. The tannins are supple, and like most successful 2011s, the wine is silky and forward. This impressively-endowed St.-Emilion should drink well for 10-12 years. Only 300 cases were produced. -91 Points (WA)
14048	Le Carre 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$130.06	$45.00	$78.31	91	91	91	92	Rounded and rich, this generous, full-bodied wine comes from a single parcel in the heart of Saint-Émilion. Black fruits are structured with dense tannins and a firm tension between ripeness and dryness. The wine is powerful, finishing with pepper and spice. Drink from 2018. -92 points (WE)

15272	Le Carre 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	6	$112.00	$30.00	$77.50				91	Ripe and powerfully structured, this is dense with bold blackberry flavors and dark tannins that give a firm structure. However, as so often with 2013, it's the fruit that shines in this rich wine. -91 Points (WE)
16413	Le Carre 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$124.99	$40.00	$78.99	91			93	Rounded and rich, this single-vineyard wine is concentrated without losing a touch of its beautiful fruit. It has a fine balance between fruit and acidity as well as a tense line of minerality and tight texture. Drink this impressive wine from 2024. -93 Points (WE)
11440	Le Dome 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$163.52	$60.00	$94.52	92			93	Tasted at the château, the 2006 Le Dôme has retained an attractive bouquet with crushed violet and cold limestone scents percolating through the blackberry and boysenberry fruit. The palate is fresh on the entry with slightly coarse tannin, mulberry, red plum and Seville orange marmalade here, moderate depth with just a slightly abrupt, muscular finish. It has aged better than Les Asteries and I would be inclined to drink this over the next 5-7 years. Tasted March 2016. -92 Points (WA)
11441	Le Dome 2007	St. Emilion	750	2007	12	$146.11	$50.00	$88.61					Lots of blackberry and floral character on the nose. Medium body and fine tannins, but a little austere and loose on the finish. (WS)
11442	Le Dome 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$163.52	$60.00	$94.52	94			94	An opaque purple color is followed by notes of graphite, mulberries, blueberries and flowers. The 2008 is broad, savory and medium to full-bodied with sweet tannins, decent acidity, a textured, complex mouthfeel and no hard edges. It, too, should drink nicely for 10-15 years. -94 Points (WA)
10671	Le Dome 2009	St. Emilion	750	2009	12	$300.59	$90.00	$197.09	99	95		95	One of the most distinctive wines made in Bordeaux, Le Dome has one of the highest percentages of Cabernet Franc of any claret I can think of. Composed of 80% Cabernet Franc and 20% Merlot, it exhibits a certain delicacy and elegance (due to the Cabernet Franc component) in addition to resounding power, concentration, depth and multidimensional personality. Black/purple to the rim, it offers strikingly intense notes of spring flowers, raspberries, mulberries and wood smoke, medium to full body, sweet tannin and a cunning intensity and texture that suggest finesse and delicacy. However, the wine's richness, length and lingering depth build incrementally in this exceptional St.-Emilion. It will be drinkable in 4-5 years and should age for two decades or more. This is Jonathan Malthus' finest wine to date. -99 Points (WA)
13038	Le Dome 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$202.52	$60.00	$133.52	94			94	I'm not sure you can still call this the flagship wine of proprietor Jonathan Maltus given the other top wines he's producing. Le Dome, which is dominated by an incredibly high percentage of Cabernet Franc (80%) and the balance Merlot (20%), is a special effort that must be tasted to be believed. The 2011 boasts gorgeously juicy blue, red and black fruits intermixed with floral and spice aromas. This supple, velvety-textured, opulent, medium to full-bodied, ethereal St.-Emilion is another stunning effort. It is amazing how well Maltus does whether the vintage provides great raw materials, or if he is confronted with more difficult challenges as he was in 2011. Drink this brilliant effort over the next 10-15 years. -94 Points (WA)
14049	Le Dome 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$222.10	$80.00	$130.10	93			95	A parcel of almost 100% Cabernet Franc gives this perfumed, classy wine. It's very structured, mineral-textured and darkly dense. Powerful and concentrated, this intense wine will develop into a major statement. Drink from 2019. -95 Points (WE)
15399	Le Dome 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$184.99	$45.00	$133.24				94	Initially closed, this wine just hints at its richness and perfumed character. As it opens it shows still-young tannins and intense black plums and blueberries that will develop as the wine ages. It is likely to mature well over the medium to long term. -94 Points (WE)
16494	Le Dome 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$199.99	$50.00	$142.49	92			96	This almost 100% Cabernet Franc single-vineyard wine is perfumed and ripe. The velvet tannins and ripe black fruits are fine, structured and with enormous potential. The wine is generous, opulent and worthy of serious aging. Drink from 2027. -96 Points (WE)
11449	Les Asteries 2006	St. Emilion	750	2006	12	$122.94	$45.00	$71.19		90		92	As a contrast to Jonathan Maltus's Le Carré, this single-vineyard wine, from vines situated only 100 yards away, has a taut, mineral flavor, with an initial austere character which then opens out to give dark bitter chocolate and plum skin flavors. It is potentially a richer, more impressive wine, but it needs aging for 4-5 years. -92 Points (WE)
11451	Les Asteries 2008	St. Emilion	750	2008	12	$122.94	$45.00	$71.19	93			93	A superb effort, the dense purple-colored 2008 offers a beautiful nose of new saddle leather, kirsch, black currants, licorice and spice box, medium to full body, ripe tannins, a luscious texture and a long, layered mouthfeel and finish. Sadly, this beauty is very limited in availability. It should drink well for 10-15 years. -93 Points (WA)
11658	Les Asteries 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$182.16	$60.00	$113.16	96	94		94	This formidable wine has loads of structure, an undeniable chalky minerality, big, rich blackberry and creme de cassis fruit, with hints of spring flowers, tar and licorice. Magnificent and pure, this is a killer example of St.-Emilion that is full-bodied and capable of lasting 25-30 years. -96 Points (WA)
13035	Les Asteries 2011	St. Emilion	750	2011	12	$173.00	$50.00	$115.50	93	93		94	Structured and firm, this is a dark chocolate and black fruit-driven wine with solid tannins and enormous density. It has a mineral texture with a dry core surrounded by juicy berry fruits. A powerful wine, it promises a long-term future. Drink from 2018. -94 Points (WE)
14032	Les Asteries 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$191.42	$70.00	$110.92	92	92		93	Very structured and packed with tannins, this has the weight to balance those qualities, promising layers of black fruits as it develops. There's a mineral character here, the tannins in suspension. The aftertaste brings out delicious, lightly salty acidity. Drink from 2018. -93 Points (WE)
15294	Les Asteries 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	6	$165.00	$45.00	$113.25				93	Tight, textured and mineral, this wine just hints at the fruit to come. It is dark, brooding and concentrated, with black-plum flavors just beginning to shine through the dry texture. -93 Points (WE)
16495	Les Asteries 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$172.99	$50.00	$115.49	91			94	Tight and concentrated, this is a very fine wine. Great acidity and great tannins go with the most intense fruit. Blackberry and black-cherry flavors power through this structured wine. There is also elegance and a fine sense of style. Drink from 2025. -94 Points (WE)
11657	Vieux Château Mazerat 2010	St. Emilion	750	2010	12	$117.03	$40.00	$71.03	95				This is one of the tightest, most backward wines in the Jonathan Malthus portfolio. The grapes come from an old-vine parcel near Angelus and Beausejour-Duffau, and the final product is a blend of 65% Merlot and 35% Cabernet Franc. Again displaying plenty of minerality, which seems to be a prevailing theme throughout the 2010s from Malthus, the 2010 Vieux Chateau Mazerat is full-bodied, with an abundance of floral notes as well as black currant and blackberry fruit. Impressively endowed and built like a skyscraper, this full-bodied wine needs a good 7-8 years of cellaring and should keep for 25-30 years. Interestingly, the vines were planted in 1947. -95 Points (WA)
14098	Vieux Château Mazerat 2012	St. Emilion	750	2012	12	$190.56	$70.00	$110.06	94			95	Another single vineyard wine from the high-rent district, surrounded by Canon, Angélu and Beauséjour-Duffau, Jonathan Malthus' inky ruby/purple 2012 is wonderfully concentrated with a boatload of blackcurrant and black cherry fruit intermixed with licorice, vanillin, and spice. Some underlying minerality buttresses the wine's medium to full-bodied mouthfeel. The tannins are sweet and soft, and the wine very impressive. Drink this blend of 66% Merlot and 34% Cabernet Franc over the next 15 or more years. -94 Points (WA)
15240	Vieux Château Mazerat 2013	St. Emilion	750	2013	12	$165.00	$45.00	$113.25				94	Sophisticated and full of fruit, this wine combines the freshness of the year with great tension and structure. The juicy underlay will develop well over the next few years. It's complex and worth aging. -94 Points (WE)
16414	Vieux Château Mazerat 2014	St. Emilion	750	2014	12	$142.98	$40.00	$96.98	93			95	This powerful ripe wine has firm tannins that are so well integrated. With acidity and with rich black fruit, the wine is concentrated and dense. From a small parcel on the slope of Saint-Emilion, it is a wine to age for many years. Drink from 2026. -95 Points (WE)
